JOINT / UNOPPOSED MOTION TO STAY ALL DEADLINES FOR TWO WEEKS

At the hearing on March 27, 2025, Plaintiff Optimum Imaging Technologies LLC (“OIT”) informed the Court that it anticipated reaching settlements-in-principle with Defendants in all the above-captioned matters within the next few weeks. That is still the case; the parties are diligently communicating with individuals located in different time zones and anticipate filing Notices of Settlement in the above-captioned matters in the next couple of weeks.

Under Local Rules CV-5(a)(3)(C) and CV-7(e)–(f), briefs for several motions in the above-captioned matters would be due this week, including: Nikon’s reply in further support of its motion for leave to amend its invalidity contentions would be due on April 1, 2024, see Nikon, Dkt. 70 (filed after 5pm CDT); Sony’s reply in further support of its motion for leave to amend its invalidity contentions would be due on April 1, 2025, see Sony, Dkt. 86 (filed after 5pm CDT); OIT’s response to Defendants’ joint motion to compel production of financial documents would be due on April 1, 2025, see, e.g., Nikon, Dkt. 67 (filed after 5pm CDT); Samsung, Dkt. 96 (filed after 5pm CDT); Sony, Dkt. 79 (filed after 5pm CDT); and OIT’s sur-reply in further support of its motion for leave to amend its infringement contentions against the Samsung Defendants would be due on April 2, 2025, see Samsung, Dkt. 104 (filed after 5pm CDT).

In view of the above, OIT and Defendant Nikon Corporation respectfully request that this Court stay all deadlines for a period of two weeks in their litigation (4:23-cv-923), and OIT and Defendant Sony Corporation respectfully request that this Court stay all deadlines for a period of two weeks in their litigation (-928). OIT further respectfully requests that this Court stay all deadlines for a period of two weeks in its litigation against the Samsung Defendants (-927). As set forth in the certificate of conference below, OIT conferred with counsel for the Samsung Defendants, and the Samsung Defendants do not oppose this requested relief.
