Subject: Getting ready for TechCrunch Application

Hi guys,

just looked on stage.icharts.net and.....STILL THE SAME freaking PICTURE WE ALREADY KNOW :)

We need to get the Pre-BETA look & feel + set up prepared for filing the TechCrunch Application June 11.

Any update when this will be ready?

Just as a reminder what needs to be in there:

- refined Studio sizing / usability functionality
- Log-In page with PRE-BETA SIGN
- My Gallery as first screen when you log-in
- When you click on New iChart, button is visible to upload data sheet (edit data sheet button visible but inactive)
- links in top right for "ABOUT" and "HELP"

If possible: Straight download of interactive chart (not via the new page that opens up)

Best,
Seymour
