Subject: Re: Development status on dev environment

Dear Girish,

I looked through it. This looks really nice, I am very impressed!!

Let's get all the glitches out and then let's rock!

Monday 1pm CET is OK for me. I will check with Tyron.

Best,

Seymour

PS: Please put Hans-Bernd on all communication aswell.

Hello Seymour/ Tyron,

We have uploaded latest dev code on to dev server. This is the current state of development.

Don't get scared looking at this ☺. It is in pretty bad shape because we have migrated to flex 3 and need to do some changes to make the code compatible. We are on top of it.

However, you can get the glimpse and give you feedback on function flow of edit data sheet, format data tips, general resizing and paging concept, menu bar in online chart.

The "demo" watermark is now gone from the swf download.

Please go through these features and let us know if we are on right track.

Can we have a call on Monday to discuss on this?
