Subject: Meeting in Munich

Hi Seymour,

Thanks for the information. Sounds good to me, both your networking approach and the meeting time.

At 6pm most downtown bars in Munich are quite noisy. After-work time.

I suggest we meet at the Tragbar, which is a tiny Berlin-style coffee bar close to my office. They close at 6, but I have the key. So we can have an undisturbed chat and a latte macchiato. The address is Zenettistraï¿½e 33. On www.tragbar.info you can see what the front looks like. You can't really miss it.

In case we need to look at a few things on the computer we can just walk over to my office.

Does that sound OK to you?

I guess you'll take a taxi. In case not, ride the U3 or U6 to Poccistraï¿½e, get out at the end of the train, up the escalator, use the right exit and walk straight on. Only 1 minute to Zenettistraï¿½e and 2 more down the road til you hit the Tragbar.

Cheers,
Tyron

Tyron,

yes, I long left the apprentice stage and no, I do not tend to waste my time or that of anyone else for that matter.

Regards Flash techno - by the time we meet I will have read what Wikipedia has to say and that is as much as I am planning to go for the moment. However, I need to understand which technology is the best for the application I have in mind and for which I am in the process of launching a venture. . At this point I won't put anything more into writing.

Apart from this, I am interested in seeing what kind of business guy you are and what kind of business one can do with you. This is my style networking.

If this works for you, I propose we get together for 1h on Thursday at 6pm. You choose, either your office or somewhere else. If you want to meet earlier or later, let me know.

Rgds,
Seymour
