

DECLARATION OF YANG WANG, Ph.D., ESQ.

I, Yang Wang, hereby declare the following under penalty of perjury:

1. I am an attorney-at-law with the law firm Sterlington PLLC, where I specialize in patent litigation, including proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board and the federal courts. I am over the age of 18, and I make this declaration in support of the patent owner's motion for my pro hac vice admission based on my personal knowledge.

2. I am an attorney licensed and admitted to practice in the State of New York and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, where I have been admitted since 2023 and 2025, respectively. I am a member in good standing of both the New York Bar and the Massachusetts Bar.

3. I am also an attorney licensed and admitted to practice in the Province of Alberta in Canada since July 2020 after the mandatory one-year articling period between May 2019 and June 2020. I am a member in good standing of the Law Society of Alberta, Canada.

4. I practice in the field of intellectual property, including patent litigation, prosecution, and IP transactional matters, and I have done so for about six (6) years in the U.S. and Canada since May 2019.

5. I have attained a passing grade on the examination for registration to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“Office”) completed on December 11, 2024. As a Canadian citizen, I am currently seeking to be granted limited recognition pursuant to 37 CFR § 11.9(b) to practice before the Office in patent matters.

6. I hold a J.D. and a Ph.D. in Cellular and Molecular Biology from the University of Alberta in 2016 and 2019, respectively, and an M.S. in Cellular and Molecular Biology, and a B.Sc. in Biology from Lanzhou University.

7. I am experienced in litigating patent infringement matters. I have been litigating patent infringement cases in the U.S. since my admission to the New York Bar in 2023 at my previous firms Cooley LLP and Panitch Schwarze Belisario & Nadel LLP. My experience spans claim construction, expert and fact witness depositions, and dispositive motions. I also provide strategic counsel on patent prosecution, IP due diligence, and global portfolio management. I also advise biopharmaceutical companies on IP-driven transactions, including licensing agreements, R&D collaborations, and technology transfers.

8. The designated lead counsel in this proceeding, Brenton R. Babcock, is a registered practitioner with the Office and experienced in proceedings before the PTAB.

9. I have never been denied admission to practice before any court or administrative body. I have never ever been suspended or disbarred from practice before any court or administrative body. I have never been held in contempt by any court or administrative body.

10. I have read and will comply with the Office Patent Trial Practice Guide and the Board's Rules of Practice for Trials set forth in 37 C.F.R., part 42.

11. I understand that I will be subject to the USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 11.101 et seq. and disciplinary jurisdiction under 37 C.F.R. § 11.19(a).

12. I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements are made with the knowledge that willful false statements are punishable by fine, imprisonment, or both under section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of U.S. Patent No. 11,906,508.

Dated: July 29, 2025

Respectfully submitted,
