Re: Universal Connectivity Technologies, Inc. v. Dell Technologies Inc. and Dell Inc.,
 1:23-cv-1506-RP (W.D. Tex.)

Counsel:

Dell Technologies Inc. and Dell Inc. (collectively, “Dell”) have filed an inter partes review (IPR) petition (IPR2024-01481) with the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) to address the unpatentability of claims 1-9, 11-26, and 28 (“the Challenged Claims”) of U.S. Patent No. 7,746,798 (“the ’798 Patent”). The tables in attached Appendix A lists the grounds and references asserted in IPR2024-01481.

I write to inform you that Dell hereby stipulates, in the above-captioned litigation, that if IPR is instituted in IPR2024-01481, then:

The Petitioner, Dell, will not pursue in District Court litigation the specific grounds asserted in inter partes review IPR2024-01481, or on any other ground that was raised or could have been reasonably raised in an IPR (i.e., any ground that could be raised under §§ 102 or 103 on the basis of prior art patents or printed publications).

See Sotera Wireless, Inc. v. Masimo Corporation, IPR2020-01019, Paper 12 (PTAB Dec. 1, 2020) (precedential); Board’s e-mail to the parties dated March 3, 2025.

This language is the same as that set forth in the Board’s e-mail dated March 3, 2025, authorizing submission of such a stipulation to the Board with respect to IPR2024-01481.

Pursuant to Sotera, Dell reserves the right to assert grounds in the above-captioned litigation based on any art not comprised solely of patents and printed publications, including system art, either alone, or in combination with other prior art.¹ For the sake of clarity and to avoid any doubt, if the PTAB declines to institute IPR2024-01481, Dell reserves the right to assert any grounds of invalidity in the above-captioned litigation against the '798 Patent.

Sincerely,

Brian W. Oaks
