Counsel,

This is in response to an email dated December 23, 2025, and sent at 5:07 pm. The delay in responding is because the Federal Government was closed on December 24-26.

In the email, counsel for Petitioner states: "Petitioner and Patent Owner have agreed to exchange demonstratives on Monday, December 29, 2025." Counsel for Petitioner asks if a stipulation is required to be filed to effect this agreement.

The parties do not need to file a stipulation, or submit any other formal notification. We accept counsel's representation of an agreement between the parties, and approve the revised service date of December 29.

We remind the parties that the filing date for demonstratives cannot be extended by the parties. See Paper 28 ("Order Setting Oral Argument"), pg. 4, fn5 ("The date for filing demonstratives may not be changed by the parties.").
