Hi Rebecca,

The clients on this side of the case (including Lupin) nominated me to reach out to you to float the idea of a stay of the litigation, pending a decision on the pending IPR.

It makes sense in some contexts, but I can imagine it does not in some contexts as well.

With the PIII'd patents on this one, it has never made much sense to me that we have a trial date set as it is.

Perhaps early next week we could discuss?

Or, do you think it a non-starter?

Thanks,

cjs
