John Visosky commented on SSA-1314:

Lucy,

Please try patchset 4 of 10161. It _seems_ to fix the problem that I saw with Browser.

It may cause other regressions, so please continue to try lots of things.

Thanks.

>

> The following patches are a first implementation of "effective display preferences" (EDP's):

> 10146 (frameworks/flexlib)

> 10147, 10148, 10149, and 10161 (frameworks/base)

> 10163 (Gallery)

> The Gallery patch is to make Gallery single-app, to demonstrate the effects of combining a single-display and dual-display app in the same task (by adding an attachment in email).

> This JIRA issue has been created for feedback from testing of these patches. Please do not open a JIRA issue for each problem or suggestion, as there are sure to be many while this feature stabilizes.
