Counsel,

Thank you for sending the agreement. We will review it today, but we believe this should resolve one of the two disputes regarding the agreement. We continue to seek additional clarity regarding consideration exchanged under the indemnity agreement, so we intend to go forward with the conference with the Board. When we spoke, you said your team would prepare a draft exhibit of the e-mail correspondence between the parties. Are you still planning to do that today? If not, we will prepare a draft for your consideration so the Board can have some additional context before the call.

Best regards,

Jason

Counsel,

To avoid overburdening the Board and in the spirit of compromise, Jumio is producing the attached Partner Agreement unredacted. Note the agreement is produced under AEO, and only outside counsel can review.

Please let us know if this obviates the need for the conference with the Board.

Regards,

Jean Nguyen, Ph.D.
