

Statistics

We have been tracking details on Federal Circuit decisions since November 1, 2019. Our interactive charts and graphs show the typical timing for a Federal Circuit appeal from start to finish, from end of briefing to oral argument, or from oral argument to decision. Also take a look at appeal outcomes broken down by originating tribunal, patent owner versus non-patent owner appellant, and more. Use the filters and date ranges to see what interesting trends you can discover.

