Subject: Error in Petition in IPR2025-00257

Your honors,

We recently discovered a clerical error in the petition in IPR2025-00257 in its identification of the trial date in its Fintiv section. Even though we provided (and cite) the district court's docket control order identifying the start of trial as June 1, 2026, the Fintiv section in the petition says July 1, 2026.

We are seeking the Board's input on whether or how to correct the error. For example, is it enough to have notified the Board and the Board perhaps make this email of record in the proceeding? Should we file a corrected petition with the month corrected? Is there another solution the Board would recommend?

We have notified counsel for Patent Owner of the clerical error, and they do not oppose our seeking to notify the Board of the error or oppose our having it corrected.

If the Board wishes a conference call to discuss correcting the petition, the parties can provide availability for a call.

Best regards,
Joshua Griswold, lead counsel for Petitioner
