NAZARENE
THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

Monday, July 25, 2005

Dear Dr Marston,

Appointment as SESSIONAL LECTURER

In accordance with the principles and policies of the Board of Governors of Nazarene Theological College, this letter is to confirm to you formally that the Board offers you an appointment as SESSIONAL LECTURER for the 2005-2006 academic session.

Your appointment is to teach and assess the following module in accordance with the college's agreed syllabi and policies as the Academic Board shall from time to time determine:

ST301 Ethics (Team-Taught: Autumn Semester 2005)

You will be directly responsible to the Revd Chris Cope for the delivery of this module. Dr David McCulloch will be the moderator of coursework.

Payment for this appointment will be £375.00 (team-taught units are remunerated at half the rate for single-lecturer sessions), payable at the end of the contract plus allowable travel expenses at the college's agreed mileage rate or at the actual fare on public transport. All expense claims shall be paid at the end of the semester after submission of claims on an appropriate form and after all work on the module has been completed.

Appointment as a Sessional Lecturer does not normally lead to an Extended Appointment.

The Board requires your signed acknowledgment of the Letter of Appointment. A copy is enclosed for your personal file.

Sincerely yours,

Dr D McCulloch, Principal
Nazarene Theological College

cc. Dr P S Rae, Dean
Mrs D Whittle, Administrator
Revd C Cope, Lecturer

I acknowledge the terms and responsibilities of the above Contract and accept an appointment as Sessional Lecturer at Nazarene Theological College for the module(s) and period specified therein.
