Subject: Twitch v. Razdog, IPR2025-00307, -308: Discretion Requests

Dear Acting Director Stewart,

In the above-captioned IPRs, PO filed its discretionary brief on March 28, 2025. These filings occurred before the new paper types were available, and the parties write to inform the Office of the filings pursuant to the guidance provided during the Boardside chat on April 17, 2025.

Petitioner's opposition briefs are currently due on April 28, 2025, and on April 21, 2025, Petitioner provided Sotera stipulations to PO for the above-captioned IPRs. During the Boardside chat on April 17, the speakers stated that petitioners should provide any stipulation in time for the patent owner to take the stipulation into account in the discretion brief. Because of the timing in these proceedings (discretion briefs filed two days after the interim process was announced), PO's discretionary briefs do not address Petitioner's stipulations. Therefore, the parties jointly propose this matter proceed as follows:

- Petitioner will file its discretion opposition brief in each IPR by the current due date of April 28, 2025
- PO may request authorization to file a reply to Petitioner's oppositions in each IPR to address Petitioner's stipulation, if necessary, following the filing of Petitioner's oppositions

If the Acting Director would like to have a conference call to discuss, the parties can confer and provide times of mutual availability.

Sincerely,

Jessica Kaiser
