Counsel, The parties are authorized to file a Joint Motion to Terminate Proceeding, within ten days of the date of this communication, by May 21, 2026. The parties are also authorized to file a Request to Keep Agreement Separate, under 37 C.F.R. § 42.74(c), together with a true copy of all agreements. The Request should also indicate whether a true copy of all agreements or understanding between the parties made in connection with, or in contemplation of, the termination of the proceeding has been filed.” If no such Motion to Terminate is filed by May 21, 2026, a Final Written Decision may issue without further notice.

Regards,

Andrew Kellogg,
Deputy Chief Clerk, Trials

Dear Honorable Board,

The parties jointly write to inform the Board that they have reached a settlement, and to request leave to file a motion to terminate the above-noted IPR as well as a request to treat the associated settlement agreement as business confidential and accessible to the Board and Parties only.

Respectfully submitted,

Andy Mason, Lead Counsel for Petitioner
Michael Heim, Lead Counsel for Patent Owner
