Thank you Ms. Williams. We received a written order from the Florida District Court for the hearing today. See Dkt. 291. Would you please let us know if the Board would prefer Patent Owner file the written order instead of the hearing transcript.

Your Honors:

In light of the Board's order in its May 30, 2025, email that "[t]he parties must also file the most recent scheduling order from the related litigation if there have been any changes with respect to the order issued on September 9, 2024," Petitioners provide notice that Judge Torres issued an oral order regarding scheduling from the bench at a hearing today. See

Paperless Minute Order, Hernandez, et al. v. Stingray Group Inc., et al., Case No. 1:24-cv-21226-RAR-EGT (S.D. Fla.) (“Florida Litigation”) (Doc. 289). Attorney Mr. Michael McBride, counsel for Petitioners in this proceeding, attended the hearing, and it is his understanding that—relevant to scheduling—the Court:

- has stayed all deadlines indefinitely; and
- said that the October trial will not go forward as scheduled.

Mr. McBride has ordered an expedited transcript of the hearing, but does not expect to receive it for 3 business days. If the Board would like, Petitioners will file the transcript when received.

Petitioners’ counsel reached out to Patent Owner’s currently named counsel (copied) by email and phone to see if this notice could be designated as “joint.” However, because it appears Patent Owner, Dr. Edwin Hernandez, terminated Patent Owner’s counsel in this IPR on May 28, 2025, see Florida Litigation, Doc. 288, at Ex. C, p. 21, Petitioners’ counsel does not expect a response.
