James,

To be clear, Neurelis has not “refus[ed] to permit cross examination of Messrs. Cartt, Mitchnick and Hale.” Padagis does not like the mechanism that Neurelis has proposed that protects these third-party witnesses from being deposed on multiple occasions. With that clarification, if Padagis seeks permission to file the proposed motion, Neurelis requests that Padagis notify the Board of Neurelis’s position and Neurelis’s request for the opportunity to file an opposition in the event the Board grants Padagis’s request to file such a motion.

Thanks,
Mike

Mike,

We disagree that the potential depositions of witnesses in the underlying litigation absolves Neurelis of its obligations in the IPR under 37 CFR §42.51(b)(1)(ii). By submitting declarations in the IPR, Neurelis was aware that those declarants could be subject to separate depositions in both the IPR and the litigation. Moreover, there is no guarantee that any depositions of the declarants in the litigation would occur more than a week before our reply in the IPR is due as required under the IPR rules. Also, the differing protective orders in place in the IPR and the underlying litigation adds potential complications that are avoided with separate depositions.

Given Neurelis's repeated refusal to permit cross examination of Messrs. Cartt, Mitchnick and Hale in these IPRs, we are going to seek permission from the Board to file a motion to strike their declarations from the IPRs. We assume Patent Owner would oppose such a motion but let us know if otherwise.

James Murphy

James,

As previously explained, we do not see any basis for taking third-party depositions in these proceedings in view of the Board's February 6 Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we note that in May 2025, Padagis served subpoenas for depositions of these same individuals in the co-pending litigation. We accepted service on their behalf and scheduled depositions to proceed in July 2025. Those depositions were put on hold, however, due to consolidation of related cases which occurred in November 2025. Fact discovery in the consolidated case is ongoing. In view of the foregoing, Neurelis has no objection to Padagis using, in the IPR proceedings, those portions of the deposition transcripts of these individuals relating to their respective declarations that are obtained in the co-pending litigation, subject to the limitations set forth in 37 CFR 42.53(d).

We trust that this resolves the issue.

Thanks,

Mike

Counsel,

We have not heard from you on scheduling these depositions which are required as routine discovery under 37 CFR §42.51(b)(1)(ii). If Patent Owner refuse to make the witnesses available then let us know if you agree to our alternative proposal to strike as presented in the previous email. We are available to discuss by phone if helpful as well.

Hi David,

We do not agree to cancel the depositions while Patent Owner's arguments regarding the alleged JRA are still of record in the IPRs. While the Board order negates Patent Owner's arguments related to the JRA, we are cognizant of the fact that Patent Owner may attempt to challenge the Board's findings in a future appeal and thus we must still develop the record.

To alleviate this concern, would Patent Owner agree to seek approval by the Board to file a joint motion to strike the portions of Patent Owner's responses directed to the JRA (i.e., Section VIII of Patent Owner's responses) and all the supporting exhibits including the three non-expert declarations (exhibits 2030-2038 and 2040-2047). If these arguments and evidence were stricken from the record then we agree that no depositions of the three non-expert witnesses would be needed in the IPRs.

James Murphy

Dear James,

At present, the witnesses you requested are available as follows:

- Steve Cartt: March 5 or March 6. Mr. Cartt is on Pacific time.
- David Hale: March 4. Mr. Hale is on Pacific time.
- Mark Mitchnick: March 4. Dr. Mitchnick is on East Coast time.

We may defend some or all of the above inventors in-person, but we will make sure that the conference room has a Zoom setup so that you can attend remotely if you prefer.

To avoid double-tracking depositions, we propose the following:

- Mark Mitchnick: Deposition starts March 4 at 9:00 am EST and concludes by 2:00 pm EST.
- David Hale: Deposition starts March 4 at 12:30 pm PST and concludes by 5:30 pm PST.
- Steve Cartt: Deposition starts either at 9:00 am PST or 1:00 pm PST (on March 5 or March 6) and concludes five hours later.

Given the extremely narrow scope of the declarations submitted by each witness and the restrictions set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 42.53(d)(5)(ii), the above proposal should provide ample time for the depositions.

Please let us know if the above proposal and dates/times work for your team so that we can confirm the dates and times with the witnesses.

Thanks,
David

Hi David,

We are not available to depose Dr. Brown on February 18-19 but can do so between February 25-27 if that works on your end. We plan to take Dr. Brown's deposition in person with either Dallas or LA being fine, but would prefer Dallas if possible.

We would also like to schedule the deposition of the three other declarants: Mr. Cartt, Dr. Mitchnick, and Mr. Hale. We would propose taking all three the week of March 2 with each being a single day. We plan to take these depositions remotely. Let us know if these dates work or what alternative dates would work for each of the declarants.

Subject: IPR2025-00464, -465, -466 | Proposed deposition dates for Dr. Marc Brown

Dear Counsel,

We write regarding IPR2025-00464, -465, and -466 to discuss scheduling and logistics for the deposition of Dr. Marc Brown. To the extent you plan to request a deposition, we would like to firm up the dates as soon as possible, as deposition will likely involve international travel for Dr. Brown.

Similar to how the deposition for Dr. Donovan was conducted, we propose that Dr. Brown's deposition for all three proceedings (IPR2025-464, -465, and -466) be consolidated and taken concurrently. The total deposition time shall be ten hours for cross-examination and any re-cross examination. The parties will agree on a reasonable stopping time on Day 1 and, if needed, continue the deposition the following morning on Day 2.

We will defend Dr. Brown's deposition in-person at McDermott's offices, either in Dallas or Los Angeles (depending on the date). You are welcome to take the deposition in-person, or if you prefer, we could connect you for a remote deposition.

We propose that the deposition take place February 18-19. Those dates work best for us and the witness.

Can you please confirm that these dates work for you?

Regards,
David
