Ex-1050	Defendants' Motion for Withdrawal of Their Motion for Ongoing Royalties

Petitioner provides this non-argumentative update that it has withdrawn its Opposed Motion for Ongoing Royalty filed in the related litigation Barco, Inc. et al. v. Yealink (USA) Network Technology Co., Ltd. et al., C.A. No. 23-cv-521 (E.D. Tex.). Petitioner's notice of withdrawal, D.I. 271, is submitted as Ex-1050.

Petitioner's Opposed Motion for Ongoing Royalty, Ex-2036, is at the center of Patent Owner's supplemental information filed on January 28, 2026. See Paper No. 48.

As Petitioner explained in its Notice of Withdrawal, because the Board “found 35 asserted claims across four asserted patents, including 8 of the 10 asserted independent claims, unpatentable in four Final Written Decisions,” and the USPTO “ordered reexamination of all Asserted Claims not challenged in IPRs,” the assumptions underlying its Motion for Ongoing Royalty “no longer hold” and Petitioner no longer seeks any ongoing royalty. See Ex-1050 at 1, 2.

Petitioner respectfully submits its Notice of Withdrawal is relevant to the Board's Final Written Decision because Petitioner never acquiesced to the value any Barco patent. As the notice makes clear, now that the Board found the challenged asserted claims unpatentable, its motion is no longer necessary and is moot. The motion for ongoing royalty did not include the '972 patent. Petitioner also respectfully notes that, consistent with its position when seeking authorization to submit this update, it has provided no argument.
