4 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, everyone. This
5 is Judge Scott Moore, and -- Barry Grossman, and Michael 6 Zecher. And we are here today for a conference call in 7 cases IPR2025-00525, -2025-00530, and -2025-00629. And 8 the purpose of the call is to discuss Petitioners' request
9 to file a motion for sanctions.

10 So let's begin by taking appearances starting 11 with Petitioner.

12 MR. WALTERS: Good morning, Your Honor. For 13 Petitioner Axon and Dedrone, this is Chad Walters of Baker
14 Botts. And I believe my colleague Ellyar Barazesh is also 15 on the call.

16 THE COURT: Good morning.

17 MR. WALTERS: Good morning, Your Honor.

18 MR. WADEKAR: Good mor- --

19 MR. PUREE: This is Ashe Puri on behalf of 20 Petitioner Skydio.

21 THE COURT: Good morning. Is that everyone for 22 Petitioner?

23 MR. WALTERS: I believe so, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Then let's move on to Patent
25 Owner.

1 MR. WADEKAR: Thank you, Your Honor. This is
2 Suhrid Wadekar on behalf of Airspace Defense, Inc. And
3 with me are my colleagues (audio interference) and Amanda
4 L'Esperance as well.

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 And, Petitioner, you were instructed to arrange a
7 court reporter. Is there a court reporter also listening 8 in?

9 MR. WALTERS: There should be, Your Honor.

10 THE STENOGRAPHER: Yes, Your Honor. Good
11 morning. My name is Justyne Johnson, and my California
12 certification number is 14301.

13 THE COURT: Great. Good morning, Ms. Johnson.

14 Okay. So I understand that Petitioner is 15 contemplating filing a motion for sanctions due to, I
16 guess, what it believes is sanctionable misconduct on 17 Patent Owner's part resulting from Patent Owner's, I
18 guess, noticing depositions and then waiting until the 19 last minute to cancel them. So I think we understand the 20 background.

21 But why don't we allow both parties to explain
22 the situation? So we'll begin with Petitioner. Please
23 explain your contemplating motion and the basis for it.
24 And then we'll have Patent Owner set forth its position.

25 So Counsel, Petitioner, Mr. Walters, I believe

1 you can go ahead.

2 MR. WALTERS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 So the basis for Petitioners' request to move for 4 sanctions is under 37 CFR 42.12(a). It's specifically
5 (a)5, abuse of discovery; (a)6, abuse of process; and 6 (a)7, actions that cause unnecessary increase in costs of 7 the proceeding. And, Your Honor, the basis is the late
8 cancellation of five depositions.

9 There were three depositions scheduled for 10 June 11th and 12th. Patent owner canceled all three 11 depositions at the same time after 5:00 p.m. on June 10th,
12 and this is a pattern of behavior in these proceedings.
13 Patent owner canceled two depositions scheduled for 14 April 9th. Both were canceled at the same time after 15 5:00 p.m. on April 7th, and Petitioners incurred
16 significant expenses in the form of attorneys' fees,
17 expert press calls, and nonrefundable travel expenses.

18 And we're specifically seeking compensatory
19 expenses for the June 11th and 12th depositions that were 20 belatedly canceled. These are not expenses that would 21 otherwise have been incurred as those two depositions --
22 or those three depositions occurring over the last two 23 days were the last activities from the experts in these 24 proceedings.

25 There are no more declarations or

1 cross-examination testimonies for them to provide. That's 2 the basis for our request.

3 THE COURT: And, Counsel, you mentioned travel
4 expenses. Aren't these video depositions?

5 MR. WALTERS: They are video depositions. But we 6 had arranged for one of our witnesses to be in Dallas, and 7 so he had a nonrefundable flight that he incurred. And 8 that's for the June 12th deposition.

9 And noting on the travel, I will note that Patent
10 Owner's counsel did travel to be in the same room with 11 their witness for three depositions that occurred in 12 February, and also for three depositions that occurred
13 last week where the witness was in Cypress. Patent owners
14 counsel traveled to be in the same room with the witness
15 for those depositions.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else for Petitioner
17 before we move on to Patent Owner?

18 MR. WALTERS: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And, Mr. Wadekar, please go
20 ahead.

21 MR. WADEKAR: Okay. Thank you, Your Honors.

22 Since the petitioner mentioned the June petitions
23 focused, I'll start there. So the one complained about 24 those depositions was that, from our perspective, the 25 schedule was extremely tight. It was very -- deceived.

1 The -- our position from the petitioners and supporting 2 that duration -- let me just check my notes here. On 3 June 11th, I then -- our response was due very shortly
4 thereafter. So for that reason, we did not really know at 5 that time what -- in what shape or form would the 6 cross-examination of the witness would be useful. But we 7 wanted to provide adequate notice in terms of availability
8 and schedules and things like that.

9 So for that reason, we provided the notices of 10 deposition on the 3rd of June. And also, the parties
11 agreed that other than taking three different depositions
12 on three different days, we agreed to take depositions on 13 two days. Two days for one and another day for another
14 person.

15 Then later on, we diligently worked on our 16 response. And as part of that thorough review, the 17 regulations that we received, and I'm -- I feel that our 18 process is not that different from anybody else, but if 19 the Board would like, I'm happy to go into the details.

20 But at this point, I would only say that it was a 21 deliberate process working for our expert, delivering 22 arguments on the argument. Everything their experts
23 positions and really assist what we can do to help our 24 argument. Because in terms referred that their expert has 25 already explained their position. They are not likely to

1 change that.

2 So the only way we can question the expert is if 3 there are any inconsistencies if there are part of the 4 Cypress project or similarly part of the specification not
5 in the consideration, things like that. But as we work
6 through this process, we were specifically looking for 7 places where it could help.

8 And when we arrived at a decision where we did --
9 started feeling that maybe our expert can explain whatever
10 our arguments we want to present in his declaration, then 11 the need for the deposition of their expert decline. Now 12 at that point, we did jump the gun and cancel the 13 deposition, but we wanted to be mindful of this fact that 14 if we cancel it too soon and later on before we're ready
15 to file our papers, nowhere he needed this point clarified
16 then we have to go back again and seek another scheduling
17 and another complication.

18 So for that reason, we felt that it was necessary
19 for us to be absolutely sure. Because once we decided to 20 cancel, we did not want to go back and ask for another
21 deposition at another time. So that goes -- the reason
22 why we waited also in part because of the -- that really 23 was the main reason why the notice was provided late. We 24 had to sign that yes, we traveled as well -- we traveled.

25 I'm sure the opposing counsel also had to make

1 travel arrangements. And, yes, as we mentioned in our way
2 back, but it was not in any way, shape, or form to take 3 advantage of the situation or to force the other side into 4 unnecessary expenses, things like that.

5 We made plans to travel overseas. There was a
6 concern that the other side may cancel the deposition at 7 the last minute and then, well, in that case, we just 8 change our plans and come back. That's how we approached
9 this, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I just wanted to clarify the 11 dates. I think you mentioned -- well, what date did you
12 receive the declarations from Petitioners' expert?

13 MR. WADEKAR: So for the second set of 14 declarations, in response to the opposition to the revised 15 motion to amend, we received those declarations on 16 June 1st.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So you received declarations
18 on June 1st. You noticed the depositions on June 3rd; is 19 that correct?

20 MR. WADEKAR: That is correct. Yes. And then we 21 canceled the depositions on June 10th.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You canceled them on 23 June 10th?

24 MR. WADEKAR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: I think Petitioners' counsel said

14

1 after 5:00 p.m.; is that correct?

2 MR. WADEKAR: Yes. Yes. After close of business
3 at 5:00 p.m.

4 THE COURT: And depositions were noticed to begin
5 on June 12th.

6 MR. WADEKAR: That is correct. Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And your representation is 8 that that was as early as you decided for sure that Patent
9 Owner would not need depositions to respond to the brief?

10 MR. WADEKAR: Yes. That is correct. And without 11 the nearly certain -- because -- we certain, then we 12 wouldn't have to go back again and say that we made a 13 mistake and we do need to go ask these two questions. We 14 wanted to be sure on that.

15 THE COURT: And when was the -- when was your -- 16 when was the briefs you were working on due? What was the 17 due date for that?

18 MR. WADEKAR: So -- well, we did not have briefs
19 due at that point in time. But it was the petitioners
20 that have a surreply that is due -- I believe that is due
21 today.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. WADEKAR: Oh, I'm sorry. I misspoke. I
24 apologize. I have confused between the different -- no.
25 I was speaking about the deposition of our witness. I'm

1 sorry. No.

2 We had a paper that was due -- let me
3 double-check the date. But we had a -- we had our reply
4 to the opposition that was due five --

5 THE COURT: June 22nd?

6 MR. WADEKAR: June 22nd. Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you'd like to 8 add before I go back to Petitioner?

9 MR. WADEKAR: No. I don't have anything else to 10 add.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Petitioner, do you have any 12 reply to the arguments Patent Owner just made?

13 MR. WALTERS: Yes, Your Honor. One note of 14 correction. The first deposition -- well, the deposition
15 of '629 IPR, it was canceled -- all three were canceled
16 after 5:00 p.m. on June 10th. But the deposition the -- 17 '629 IPR was scheduled for June 11th and not June 12th.
18 There were two scheduled for June 12th, but there was also 19 one scheduled for June 11th.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

21 MR. WALTERS: Yes, Your Honor. I would just like
22 to note I think -- as I noted previously, this was a
23 pattern of conduct. We did not move for sanctions or did
24 not request authority to move for sanctions when this 25 occurred the first time. But it's -- in April. But it's

1 because it's a pattern of conduct that caused us to move
2 with respect to the June 11th and 12th depositions.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Give us just a moment. I'm 4 going to go on mute and confer with my colleagues offline.

5 MR. WADEKAR: Your Honor, if I may, we respond to 6 the April cancellation that goes -- the petitioners
7 mentioned the pattern as they described it?

8 THE COURT: Okay. Yes. Go ahead. Briefly
9 respond.

10 MR. WADEKAR: Yeah. I'm sorry about that. But 11 yeah. So they, again, I think, the -- from our 12 perspective, the situation was that we had -- same idea
13 that we did not want to cancel the deposition and then ask
14 for it again. That was definitely the origin and confer.

15 Also, the additional concern at that point was 16 for us was to proceed with a reply to the opposition on 17 whether to file a revised motion to amend. And that 18 decision involved the inventors with whom we were 19 discussing the matter and also expert. So, again, it was 20 a process. It just took some time to arrive at that 21 conclusion.

22 Even though this happened in two visits, in both 23 cases, we were deliberate in making sure that we are,
24 first, representing our client to the best we can and --
25 but at the second time, also making sure that we are not

17

1 going back and forth with scheduling, cancelling, and then
2 rescheduling the deposition. That is one aspect of it
3 that we wanted to avoid as much as possible. That's the 4 only comment I wanted to make.

5 Thank you, Your Honor, for allowing me to say
6 that.

7 THE COURT: Okay. One other question. Are both
8 counsel in the same time zone?

9 MR. WADEKAR: We are --

10 MR. WALTERS: No, Your Honor.

11 MR. WADEKAR: -- same time zone, Your Honor.

12 MR. WALTERS: Petitioners' counselor is in the 13 Central Time Zone.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So Petitioner's Central and 15 Patent Owner's Eastern.

16 MR. WADEKAR: So -- was -- colleagues who's on 17 the call is in the Central Time Zone as well. One of our 18 colleagues who is on the call is with me in Boston. And 19 the third of our colleague was not actually on this call
20 right now is in California, so it's -- we are in another
21 time zone as well.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 So now, we'll go on mute for just a moment while
24 I confer with my colleagues.

25 (Off the record.)

1 THE COURT: Okay. Counsel, we're back on the
2 call. Just want to make sure everyone's still here.

3 Counsel for Petitioner can hear me?

4 MR. WALTERS: Yes, I can, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Counsel for Patent Owner?

6 MR. WADEKAR: Yes. Yes, Your Honors.

7 THE COURT: And the reporter's still here?

8 THE STENOGRAPHER: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 Okay. We're back on the record. I'm sorry. Who 11 was that?

12 Okay. We're back on the record. One additional 13 question about the email that was sent to the Board
14 requesting this. It included positions from both
15 Petitioner and Patent Owner.

16 Counsel for Patent Owner, did you draft that 17 email from Patent Owner or was that a summary that was 18 offered by Petitioner?

19 MR. WADEKAR: So, Your Honors, first part of the 20 email is the petitioners' position, and then the second
21 part of the email is the position that we drafted.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Okay. So the panel has discussed this motion.
24 And our views are as follows: First of all, we wanted
25 to -- I'm sorry. Who's -- somebody wanted to speak?

1 Okay. Our views are as follows: First of all,
2 we want to admonish both parties against the use of 3 argumentative emails in these proceedings. Our scheduling
4 order is very straightforward and specific, and it says
5 that emails to the Board requesting conference calls of 6 this type, quote, "may not contain substantive argument."

7 The email that was sent to the Board requesting
8 this conference is full of substantive argument. I
9 believe both counsel before us have represented parties
10 before the Board in previous proceedings. So counsel
11 should be aware that this type of argument via email is 12 improper.

13 And, Petitioner, also, you should be aware that 14 if you're coming into the Board requesting relief of this 15 type, it's very important to do so with clean hands. And,
16 sorry, this way is not a good way to do it.

17 Secondly, we also want to admonish Patent Owner
18 to be more careful about cancelling depositions at the 19 last minute. We recognize that this schedule in this case
20 is very tight. That is unavoidable, given Patent Owner's 21 decision to file a revised motion to amend, which is its 22 right. The statutory deadlines of this type of situation
23 result in very tight scheduling.

24 And it's tight on our part as well. It's very 25 important this type of situation that you take care not to

1 do things the last minute, wherever possible. You know,
2 counsel don't appear before the Board regularly develop
3 reputations. And judges remember counsel that appear in 4 prior proceedings. So it's very important that you
5 develop the right type of reputation here. So just be 6 aware of that going forward.

7 It is our view that given the tight schedule, we 8 do not view the conduct from Plaintiff here as rising to 9 the level of sanctionable conduct at this time. So we are 10 denying lead to file this motion. However, once again, I
11 just like to caution both counsel about this kind of 12 argumentative emails and counsel -- and admonish Patent
13 Owner, specifically, to be very careful about this type of 14 thing.

15 Proceedings before the Board are very different
16 in court and litigation. A lot of the judges, and myself,
17 came from district court backgrounds, and we see this type
18 of conduct that occurs in those types of proceedings.
19 These proceedings are different. Counsel are supposed to 20 cooperate, and that's what we expect here.

21 With that being said, once again, we do not view
22 the conduct -- we do not view that as rising to the level
23 of sanctionable conduct. So permission to file the motion
24 for sanctions is denied.

25 Do the parties have any questions?

1 MR. WALTERS: None from Petitioner. Thank you,
2 Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Patent Owner?

4 MR. WADEKAR: None from Patent Owner as well.
5 And thank you, Your Honors. And we will seriously take
6 into -- we are -- yes. We will adhere to the admonishment
7 and apologize for both -- on both plans.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And then I believe 9 the last matter we need to discuss is how to handle the 10 transcript of this proceeding. It needs to be -- the 11 transcript will need to be filed as a separate exhibit in 12 each proceeding. I guess the question arises, would the 13 parties like to exchange a copy of the transcript in 14 advance and propose corrections like this was a deposition
15 transcript? That's totally up to the parties.

16 MR. WALTERS: Speaking on Petitioners, I can't 17 imagine we're going to have any correction to make.

18 THE COURT: Is that Patent Owner's view as well?

19 MR. WADEKAR: I was about to say that. Same
20 here.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So if there are no
22 corrections, I would still request that you send a copy to 23 Patent Owner's counsel before it's filed. Give them at 24 least 24 hours to, you know, confirm that there's no
25 corrections.

1 And, Patent Owner, please try to do that in 2 24 hours. As long as there is no corrections, Counsel for 3 Petitioner should file a copy of the transcript in each of 4 the three proceedings at issue here, and that should be 5 filed as a separate exhibit.

6 And if there are -- on the off chance there are 7 corrections, please submit a joint errata sheet and just 8 file that as an exhibit in each of the three proceedings
9 as well. Hopefully that won't be necessary. But that 10 will be the procedure.

11 And before we conclude the call, give me just one 12 more moment to check with my colleagues one last time and 13 make sure there's nothing else to raise.

14 Okay. We have nothing else. Thank you very 15 much.

16 MR. WALTERS: Your Honor --

17 THE COURT: This call -- yes?

18 MR. WALTERS: Your Honor, this is Chad Walters.
19 One quick question. Should it file -- I assume that the 20 petitioner exhibit in the -- in the three proceeding --

21 THE COURT: Yes. You can just file a petitioner
22 exhibit in the three proceedings.

23 MR. WALTERS: Okay. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Okay. We have nothing further, so
25 this call is terminated. Thank you.

1 MR. WALTERS: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 MR. WADEKAR: Thank you, Your Honor.
