REVVO TECHNOLOGIES, INC.,

v.

TIRE STICKERS LLC,
Patent Owner.

IPR2025-00631
Patent 11,124,027 B2

Before COKE MORGAN STEWART, Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Acting Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office.

DECISION
Referring the Petition to the Board

Tire Stickers LLC (“Patent Owner”) filed a request for discretionary denial (Paper 8, “DD Req.”) in the above-captioned case, and Revvo Technologies, Inc. (“Petitioner”) filed an opposition (Paper 10, “DD Opp.”).

After considering the parties’ arguments and the record, and in view of all relevant considerations, discretionary denial of institution is not appropriate in this proceeding. This determination is based on the totality of the evidence and arguments the parties have presented.

In particular, the challenged patent has not been in force for a significant period of time (issued in 2021). Accordingly, Patent Owner has not developed strong settled expectations that favor discretionary denial. Additionally, early challenges favor robust, predictable patent rights and weigh against discretionary denial. Furthermore, the related district court proceeding is currently stayed. DD Opp. 5–6.

Although certain arguments are highlighted above, the determination not to exercise discretion to deny institution is based on a holistic assessment of all of the evidence and arguments presented. Accordingly, the Petition is referred to the Board to handle the case in the normal course, including by issuing a decision on institution addressing the merits and other non-discretionary considerations, as appropriate.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is:

ORDERED that Patent Owner’s request for discretionary denial is denied;

FURTHER ORDERED that the Petition is referred to the Board; and FURTHER ORDERED that neither party shall file a request for rehearing or Director Review of this decision until the Board issues a decision on institution.
