v.	§	CASE NO. 2:24-CV-00186-JRG
	§
TRANSCEND INFORMATION INC.,	§
	§
Defendant.	§

CLAIM CONSTRUCTION ORDER

Plaintiff Truesight Communications LLC (“Plaintiff”) alleges that Defendant Transcend Information Inc. (“Defendant”) (together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) infringes at least claim 7 of U.S. Patent No. 8,977,783 (the “’783 Patent”). (Dkt. No. 1 at ¶ 15.) The ’783 Patent generally relates to systems and methods for quickly and securely transferring media files to an SD card from a kiosk. (Id. at ¶ 10.)

On April 22, 2025, the Parties filed the Joint Notice Regarding Claim Construction Proceedings (the “Notice”). (Dkt. No. 34.) In the Notice, the Parties both represent unequivocally that they do not require further claim construction proceedings and ask the Court to “enter a claim construction order giving each claim term their plain and ordinary meaning.” (Id. at 1.) The Parties therefore do not dispute any claim terms of the ’783 Patent.

Having considered the Notice, and noting it is joint in nature, the Court finds that it should be and hereby is GRANTED. Accordingly, each term within the ’783 Patent’s claims shall be given its plain and ordinary meaning as understood by a person of ordinary skill in the art. In reliance on the Parties’ express representations, the Court directs the Parties not to submit any claim term disputes for the Court’s consideration without prior leave and a clear showing as to why the Parties’ representations are no longer reliable or trustworthy. The Court further ORDERS the Parties not to refer, directly or indirectly, to its own or any other party's claim-construction positions in the presence of the jury. Likewise, the Court ORDERS the Parties to refrain from mentioning any part of this Order, other than the actual positions (of plain and ordinary meaning) adopted by the Court in the presence of the jury. Neither party may take a position before the jury that contradicts this opinion. Any reference to claim construction proceedings is limited to only informing the jury as to the constructions adopted by the Court herein.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 28th day of April, 2025.
