Dear Sirs,

We hereby agree to settle the disputes specified below as follows, whereby your two companies are collectively referred to as "Alpinestars":

1. [REDACTED]

2. Closure of ongoing proceedings in Italy, Germany, France, and the United Kingdom relating to European patents of Dainese S.p.A. nos. 2412257 and 2373190, Italian patents 1393802 and 1392306, and Italian design registration 275298, with costs set off, and a mutual commitment to bring such proceedings to an end as effectively and promptly as possible. The parties acknowledge the need to take action by 12:00 p.m. on Monday, October 5, 2020, to abandon the invalidity actions regarding the German portions of Dainese patents '257 and '190, and intend to prevent the first-instance judgments, including those rendered in the infringement cases concerning said patents, from becoming final. They therefore undertake to act to terminate the proceedings within the timeframes and in the manner summarized in Annex 1.

3. Closure of the parallel litigation relating to Alpinestars European patents nos. 2849591 and 2939555 and the corresponding Italian patents, with costs set off, and mutual commitment to bring such litigation to a conclusion as effectively and promptly as possible, in accordance with the timeframes and procedures summarized in Annex 1.

4. Withdrawal of oppositions, including those on appeal, against Dainese European patents 2373189 and 3167730, and against Alpinestars European patents 2849591 and 2939555. Closure of the proceeding initiated by Alpinestars before the German Patent Office concerning utility model DE202009019147U1. Abstention from any further opposition actions in the event of continuation of proceedings ex officio, with mutual commitment to ensure the closure of such oppositions within 15 days and, in any case, as promptly as possible.
