Brad, Mark, Anette and Dr. Leick [Brad...please forward this email]—

Thank you for joining me in the call today. As per our discussion, the following patents may be of interest to your team:

8,098,423

7,633,673

7,433,116

7,259,906

7,519,253

8,055,108

Also, I am attaching an article that I recently published in Laser Focus World, which generally describes some of our supercontinuum lasers.

Thanks,
Mohammed

Brad—

My Friday has now been booked as well. So, I cannot do Monday and Friday of next week, which are (unfortunately) deposition days for me.

Hope we can find a window the other days of the week.

Thanks,
Mohammed

Hi Dr. Islam:

What is your availability next week for a telephone conference with my client? I am meeting with them later this week and would like to schedule a telephone conference between you and the client. The purpose of the telephone conference would be to introduce you to the client, discuss the client's potential use of your patents, and potential license terms. Feel free to include your attorney. Also, please let me know what telephone number you would like me to call for the telephone conference.

I will let you know who my client is later this week, after I meet with them.

Best regards,

Brad Spencer
