Report Suspicious

Counsel,

In addition to the claims referenced in our emails below, Complainants do not intend on asserting infringement of several other asserted patent claims. The table below consolidates the claims for which Complainants are not asserting infringement.

| Asserted Patent | Claims for Which Complainants Are Not Asserting Infringement |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9,093,473       | Claims 6, 8, 9, 10                                           |
| 9,953,880       | Claim 6                                                      |
| 9,184,292       | Claims 8, 9, 11-15, 17-20                                    |
| 7,745,847       | N/A                                                          |
| 9,147,747       | All claims                                                   |

Complainants' expert reports will not allege infringement of these claims. However, to be clear, Complainants' expert reports will address Complainants' allegations that the Intel domestic industry products practice claims 6, 9, and 10 of the '473 Patent, in addition to other claims Complainants have not withdrawn.

As noted in our prior emails, we will file the appropriate motion when the ITC re-opens. Please let us know your position on the motion for partial termination of the investigation.

Best regards,
Will
