ORDER NO. 51: INITIAL DETERMINATION EXTENDING TARGET DATE BY SEVEN DAYS

(March 4, 2022)

By publication of the Notice of Investigation in the Federal Register, this investigation was instituted on January 21, 2021, pursuant to section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. 86 FR 7104-05 (Jan. 26, 2021). The target date in this investigation was initially set at a "16-month target date of May 26, 2022" by current Chief Administrative Law Judge Cheney, who was then presiding. Order No. 5 at 1 (Feb. 11, 2021) (EDIS Doc. No. 733843). In light of the investigation's complexity, the size of the evidentiary record, and the undersigned's responsibilities in other investigations, the target date was extended to July 5, 2022. Order No. 50 (Jan. 24, 2022; EDIS Doc. No. 761222), no review Comm'n Notice (February 16, 2022; EDIS Doc. No. 763361). Under the current target date, the final initial determination on violation is due no later than Friday, March 4, 2022. Id. at 2.

The Commission rules permit the extension of the target date for good cause. 19 C.F.R. 210.51(a) ("After the target date has been set, it can be modified by the administrative law judge for good cause shown before the investigation is certified to the Commission . . . ."). The undersigned finds that an additional extension of the target date by seven days is necessary to finalize editing the final initial determination. Accordingly, for good cause, the target date is hereby extended from July 5, 2022 to July 12, 2022, which is approximately 17.5 months after institution of the investigation. The final initial determination on violation shall be due no later than Friday, March 11, 2022.

Pursuant to section 210.42(h)(3) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. § 210.42(h)(3), this initial determination shall become the determination of the Commission within thirty (30) days after the date of service hereof unless a party files a petition for review of the initial determination pursuant to 19 C.F.R. 210.43(a), or the Commission, pursuant to 19 C.F.R. § 210.44, orders on its own motion a review of the initial determination or certain issues therein.

SO ORDERED.
