MPI Documents

The official version of the MPI documents are the postscript versions. In several cases, an HTML version is also available for convenience. The HTML version was made with automated tools. In case of a difference between these two sources, the postscript version of MPI standard documents are always considered the official version.

Those who prefer to get the documents via anonymous ftp may do so at ftp.mpi-forum.org in `pub/docs/`.

MPI-2.0

- MPI-2.0 document in compressed postscript or postscript
- MPI-2.0 errata in compressed postscript or postscript (last modified 27 October 1997)
- MPI-2.0 document in HTML
- compressed tar file or tar file of the dvi files and figures needed to create the MPI-2.0 document. Intended for those who need to create special output for their printing device.
