Customers say

Customers love this makeover app for its realistic looks and variety of makeup options, allowing them to try on different nail polishes, lipstick, and mascara. Moreover, the app is fun to use, particularly for young children, and customers appreciate being able to show off their makeup skills. However, customers report that the app is slow to load and occasionally glitches. Additionally, opinions about ease of use are mixed, with some finding it easy to use while others disagree.

Amazing tool for trying new looks

Reviewed in the United States on February 4, 2014

I was looking for an app to go through new hair ideas. I have extremely long hair and have never had it short. This is THE app if that's what it LOOKING for. Upload a pic and try new makeup and amazing hairstyles including colors down to the highlights and lowlights! AND you can save your looks and compare to make the best decision! #1 for me! My new favorite app! It really is amazingly simple to use as well! There isn't another app on the market that can do what this does. One point, it does take a long time to download "all" hairstyles, but it's so worth it! NEVER WEAR A BAD HAIRSTYLE AGAIN. ALSO, all features are extremely customizable and u can shape to your face!

cannot take picture or scale picture correctly

Reviewed in the United States on May 21, 2012

Verified Purchase

obviously a poorly ported iphone app, it just doesn't work properly. Main menu, the 'take a picture' button is greyed out and doesn't work. So I import a picture. Picture is sideways. I try to use pinch and drag to rotate and scale it. X and Y axis are reversed. Doesn't detect the pinch or rotate motion 99% of the time. Touching anywhere causes picture to jump off the screen, including the 'next' button needed to move forward. No reset button for when it is completely messed up. Essentially a completely unusable app. If Mary Kay cosmetics are as bad as this program, I fear for the lives of the people who use them.

Great 4 killing time... but also a real waste of time.

Reviewed in the United States on September 14, 2015

Verified Purchase

This is an oright app, at least to me it was. Yes it did for a while manage to free me from boredom so I will give it props for that. The reason for mh 3 star rating was simply because the options to choose from are no where near realistic looking. It looks like an overhead image with a paper cut out on top when you change the hair, and like the eye makeup is just colored in with pastel side walk chalk. You cant really see what youd possibly look like if youd really got a makeover. Its fun but definitely not realistic to trust if you are considering a makeover. Also, theres no button to delete and go back one step to the previous frame, you have to start all over again from step 1 if you decide you no longer want the hat on in the image or the earrings. Youll have to layer your new choice over the one you want to remove. Real waste of time. Great if you wanna kill some time and laugh.

A Toy

Reviewed in the United States on March 8, 2014

Verified Purchase

It's a fun toy but not overly useful. If you accidentally put the wrong language in you have to remove app and start over. Also, you can easily lose image since a save button is not clearly visible. Finally it takes several clicks to make changes and off course one is limited to Mary Kay items obviously. I deleted it for good.

Fun, but.....

Reviewed in the United States on December 19, 2015

This game is great, it has a lot of cool features! I love the fact that you can mess around with your own photos! There is only one small problem, when you get this all, that it loads fast for a long time, but when you keep playing it, it ends up glitching and slowing down. If you could fix that, I would definitely give it five stars. Get this app, if it glitches, then get off of the app and wait a little while before getting on. There are just a few things you need to remember,

1. When you start off, you must have an email, or a phone number.
2. It will ask you where you're from, but you just have to press either English USA, English Canada, etc.
3. You HAVE TO be creative!
4. When it glitches, wait a while before playing it again.
5. If you like what you did, don't forget to: either share it, or save it, or both!
6. Agree with the terms of use.

Just make sure to follow those rules, and have a great time on this great, glitching, fun game! And if the makers could please fix the glitch, that would be awesome,

What?????

Reviewed in the United States on June 1, 2012

I have had this app for about three months now, and I happened to see some of the reviews. I have never had ANY of these problems EVER! I personally think it is a pretty good app. Plenty of choices, rather intuitive, nice accessories option. I use it on my Kindle fire and it works very well. Some people have complained about the company getting money through the app. Alright shocker: all it is is a tiny Icon on the screen that says my look. You are never required to press it. If you do, it shows the different makeup you have on at that time, their prices, and an option to order them if you wish. Its not annoying or obtrusive. Its downright HELPFUL. And kudos to all those people complaining, because no app is truly free. But this one is almost there. So download it.

lil girls

Reviewed in the United States on August 29, 2013

Verified Purchase

Very disappointed in this app as I am in Mary Kay. After checking out this app, I was so surprised that it was so cheesy. Even for a free app, it should have been so much better than it is. I put a picture on the page like it said to do. But the placement of the colors for hair and makeup.....ooooooooo so bad. This app would be good for little girls but... I didn't like the fact that when I picked out a color for lips, the whole face got colored in a color scheme. That made no sense. The colors were just so messed up. I know there are better programs out there that do a whole lot better job with picking colors for hair, lips, eyes, blush, etc. ewwww

Fantastic Free Makeup App!!!

Reviewed in the United States on June 2, 2015

Verified Purchase

For a free app this is fantastic!!! The models they give you are individual , real people. There's all sorts of different combinations/ looks you can try with so many different colors. I also have not had to pay any money in order to unlock all the options, which I think most people can agree is a good deal ;). You can even take a pic of yourself or of someone else and use it as a model. Yes, it doesn't always look 100% real, but it still is really fun and keeps you occupied. Would highly recommend this to anyone who loves make-up games and is looking for a good one!

Unrealistic, and unflattering. If your goal is to have a dab hand at being a drag queen then this for you, if not don't bother downloading. Have already deleted within 5min of downloading. Shame.
