SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Credo Technology Group Holding Ltd (Credo) (NASDAQ: CRDO), an innovator in providing secure, high-speed connectivity solutions that deliver improved reliability and energy efficiency, has reached a license and settlement agreement with Amphenol related to the parties' respective patents on active electrical cable technology. Based on this agreement, the lawsuits will be promptly dismissed, bringing an end to all patent disputes between the two companies. In a statement, Don Barnetson, Senior Vice President of Product at Credo announced, "I am pleased to have reached an amicable resolution." The terms of the agreement remain confidential.

About Credo

Credo's mission is to redefine high-speed connectivity by delivering breakthrough solutions that enable the next generation of AI-driven applications. We are committed to enabling faster, more reliable, more energy-efficient, and scalable solutions that support the ever-expanding demands of AI, cloud computing, and hyperscale networks. Our innovations ease system bandwidth bottlenecks while simultaneously improving on power, security, and reliability. Our connectivity solutions are optimized for optical and electrical Ethernet applications, including the emerging 100G (or Gigabits per second), 200G, 400G, 800G and the emerging 1.6T (or Terabits per second) port markets. Credo products are based on our proprietary Serializer/Deserializer (SerDes) and Digital Signal Processor (DSP) technologies. Our product families include Integrated Circuits (ICs) for the optical and line card markets, Active Electrical Cables (AECs) and SerDes Chiplets. Our Intellectual property (IP) solutions consist primarily of SerDes IP licensing.
