OMNI MEDSCI, INC., Plaintiff, v. SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS, CO. LTD., SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS AMERICA, INC., FOSSIL GROUP, INC., FOSSIL STORES I, INC., FOSSIL PARTNERS, L.P., ONEPLUS TECHNOLOGY (SHENZHEN) CO., LTD., and ŌURA HEALTH OY, Defendants.	 Civil Action No. 2:24-CV-01070-JRG-RSP JURY TRIAL DEMANDED
---	---

OMNI MEDSCI, INC.'S LOCAL PATENT RULE 4-2 DISCLOSURE OF PRELIMINARY CLAIM CONSTRUCTIONS AND EXTRINSIC EVIDENCE

Pursuant to Local Patent Rule 4-2 and the Court's Second Amended Docket Control Order, Dkt. 65, Omni MedSci, Inc. ("Omni") hereby discloses its preliminary claim constructions and identification of extrinsic evidence for the claim terms (herein, the "Identified Terms") of the Asserted Patents and Claims that have been identified for construction by Omni and Defendants Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. and Samsung Electronics America, Inc. (collectively, "Samsung"); Fossil Group, Inc., Fossil Stores, Inc., and Fossil Partners, L.P. (collectively, "Fossil"); and Ōura Health Oy's ("Ōura") (collectively, "Defendants"):

- U.S. Patent No. 9,055,868 ("the '868 Patent"): claims 7-9;
- U.S. Patent No. 9,651,533 ("the '533 Patent"): claims 5, 11, 12;
- U.S. Patent No. 10,517,484 ("the '484 Patent"): claim 8, 10;
- U.S. Patent No. 10,874,304 ("the '304 Patent"): claims 11, 19-20;
- U.S. Patent No. 12,193,790 ("the '790 Patent"): claim 7; and
- U.S. Patent No. 12,268,475 ("the '475 Patent"): claims 5, 13.

Omni's disclosures herein are limited to the Identified Terms. Omni has not been apprised of Defendants' proposed constructions of the Identified Terms or their proffered extrinsic evidence. Omni reserved the right to rely on extrinsic evidence not identified herein to rebut or provide context to Defendants' proffered constructions or evidence, or to the extent Defendants take positions that are inconsistent with the plain and ordinary meaning of the Identified Terms from the vantage point of a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of filing and/or invention of the claims of the Asserted Patents.

Omni bases its disclosure on the current state of this case and its current knowledge and analysis, without the benefit of complete discovery. Consistent with the Local Patent Rules, Omni reserves the right to supplement, revise, and otherwise modify its P.R. 4-2 disclosures and preliminary constructions, including in response to Defendants' P.R. 4-2 disclosures and preliminary constructions, as new information becomes available, and to facilitate the preparation of the Joint Claim Construction and Prehearing Statement. Omni specifically reserves the right to rely on additional definitions from the extrinsic evidence, including but not limited to the dictionaries cited herein. Omni specifically reserves the right to rely on the extrinsic evidence identified by Defendants and any expert testimony proffered by Defendants to support Omni's proposed claim constructions.

Where a term is related to, overlaps with, and/or subsumes, other terms, Omni incorporates as to each such term its preliminary constructions of, and cited evidence for, such related, overlapping, or subsumed terms.

Appendix A contains Omni's preliminary proposed constructions and identified extrinsic evidence (produced as Bates Nos. OMS_SAM0014208 – OMS_SAM0014399). Omni also identifies as extrinsic evidence the expert testimony of Dr. Christopher Daft regarding the state of the art, technical background, and how a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of filing and/or invention of the claims of the Asserted Patents would have understood the meaning of the Identified Terms.
