

Belcher Pharmaceuticals

About Us

Belcher Pharmaceuticals is a specialty niche pharmaceutical company focused on the development and manufacturing of prescription products primarily in specialty-driven markets. Belcher focuses on difficult and challenging to manufacture drugs that may require dedicated environments as well as specialized intellectual property and or equipments. From the early stages of development to commercial manufacturing and packaging, Belcher Pharmaceuticals is your full-service provider.

Our Facilities

Belcher Pharmaceuticals conducts commercial manufacturing, packaging and analytical operations in-house at our 65,000-square-foot facilities in Largo, Florida, just outside Tampa, Florida.

Our Company

Belcher Pharmaceuticals develops, manufactures and packages generic pharmaceuticals, beta-lactam and cephalosporin antibiotics, and controlled substances.

Many customers around the globe rely on Belcher Pharmaceuticals from the early stages of product development to commercial manufacturing and packaging. Our customers rank among the world's top pharmaceutical companies, retailers and wholesalers .

Benefits

- Quality. We manufacture a wide range of superior products - from tablets and capsules to pellets and powders - using the most advanced equipment at our modern facilities.
- Flexibility. We customize product formulations and packaging configurations in both small and large volumes to meet every customer's individual needs.
- Reliability. We provide on-time delivery, exceptional service and competitive pricing, helping our customers bring world-class products to millions of consumers globally.