Subject: RE: IPR2025-001391 - Request to File Motion to Correct a Clerical Error

This email sent by kcappaert@steptoe.com originated from outside the Firm.

Dear Board,

Terumo is respectfully reaching out regarding its below request for authorization to file a motion under 37 C.F.R. § 42.104(c) to correct a clerical error in its Petition Requesting Inter Partes Review of U.S. Patent No. 10,758,652 in proceeding IPR2025-001391 and Expert Declaration in Support of Terumo's Petition. Specifically, the claim limitation: "a blood component separation device for separating the drawn blood. . .to send the plasma component to a plasma container;" was inadvertently omitted from claim 11 of the petition and claim 11 of Petitioner's expert's declaration. This limitation is addressed elsewhere in the Petition and, if granted, Terumo's corrected petition would incorporate by reference its analysis under sections IX.A.1.e-g (limitations 1[d]-1[f]) of the Petition, and Dr. Fletcher would serve a corrected declaration reflecting the same.

Please let us know if the Board authorizes the filing of this motion.

Best regards,

Kate Cappaert
Counsel for Petitioner
