2025-1378 - Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. v. Netlist, Inc.

NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

This case has been scheduled for oral argument on December 5, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. Because the time for notifying the court of any conflict has expired, the case will not be rescheduled absent a showing of compelling reasons. See Fed. Cir. R. 34.

PLACE OF ARGUMENT	U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit 717 Madison Place, N.W., Washington, DC 20439 Courtroom: Courtroom 201
COUNSEL REGISTRATION	Counsel must check in at the courtroom between 9:15 and 9:30 a.m.
REQUIRED RESPONSE	Each party must complete and return the Response to Notice of Oral Argument by November 4, 2025. Counsel should review the court's Guide for Oral Argument prior to filing the Response. If counsel presenting oral argument has not yet entered an appearance, counsel must file a motion for leave to appear and attach the proposed entry of appearance form. See Fed. Cir. R. 34(e), 47.3(b)(4).
ARGUMENT TIME	Each side receives 15 minutes (including rebuttal), unless otherwise directed by the court. In cases where one side has multiple parties represented by different counsel and firms, counsel should confer and agree on the apportionment of argument time before submitting Responses to the Notice of Oral Argument. Appellants and Cross-Appellants may divide argument between main argument and rebuttal; Appellees may not.
REMOTE APPEARANCE	Arguing counsel must immediately contact the court if experiencing COVID-19 symptoms or other medical illness that might warrant excusing an in-person appearance. Arguing counsel seeking to appear remotely at oral argument due to medical risk or other extraordinary circumstances must file a motion and accompanying declaration showing good cause within fourteen (14) days of this notice.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

ACCESSIBILITY ACCOMMODATIONS	Requests for any communications-related disability assistance (ASL, CART) must be submitted at least two weeks before the date scheduled for argument. Please refer to the court's website for more information about disability-based accommodations during court sessions: online. Oral argument audio files are also posted on the court's website following the conclusion of each day's hearings.
CONFIDENTIAL AND SEALED MATERIAL	Because all arguments are by default open to the public, live streamed online, and recorded for posting on the court's website, counsel should be careful not to discuss any sensitive, confidential, or sealed information during argument. Any motion to seal the courtroom for oral argument must be filed at least one week before argument.
COURT SECURITY	Please plan to allow additional time for security screening. Counsel and others attending argument must show photo identification and pass through security screening upon entering the courthouse. Weapons, food, and beverages are prohibited.
COURTROOM SEATING	Only Federal Circuit bar members and government counsel may sit at counsel tables and address the panel in the courtroom. Other individuals must sit in the public gallery unless they are also members of the bar. The courtroom opens one hour before argument begins; general seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis.
DIGITAL CLOCK	The digital clock on the podium provides a countdown of the time remaining of your argument, along with color-coded light cues: • Green - Within allotted time • Yellow - Within scheduled rebuttal time (if applicable) • Red - Time expired
ELECTRONIC DEVICES	Electronic devices must be turned off upon entering a courtroom, but counsel may use electronic devices, including laptops, in silent mode while seated at the counsel tables.
IDENTITY OF THE PANEL	The identity of the judges sitting on the panel hearing this case will not be disclosed until the morning of argument. Panel members will be posted outside of the courtroom and on the court's website the morning of argument.
ORDER OF CASES	Cases are called in the order listed on the calendar posted outside the courtroom and on the court's website. While waiting, counsel should remain in the courtroom or its immediate vicinity.
