JURY DEMAND

ASUS respectfully reserves the right to object to a jury trial on issues for which there is no right to trial by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

ASUS incorporates by reference the statements and responses set forth in paragraphs 1-86 above with the same force and effect as though fully rewritten herein. ASUS denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any relief in connection with the allegations in the Complaint, including, without limitation, the allegations of paragraphs (A) through (J) of the “Prayer for Relief” section. To the extent the “Prayer for Relief” section is interpreted to contain any express or implied allegations, ASUS denies them.

DEFENDANT/COUNTERCLAIM-PLAINTIFF'S AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

ASUS asserts the following affirmative defenses to the Complaint, without waiver, limitation, or prejudice, and without conceding that it bears the burden of proof as to any issue that would otherwise rest on Plaintiff. Defendant reserves all affirmative defenses under Rule 8(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the laws of the United States, and any other defenses at law or in equity that may exist now or that may be available in the future based on discovery and further factual investigation in this litigation.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Invalidity)

The claims of U.S. Patent No. 7,629,634 are invalid for failure to satisfy one or more of the requirements and/or conditions of patentability under the patent laws, including, but not limited to, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

The claims of U.S. Patent No. 7,847,346 are invalid for failure to satisfy one or more of the requirements and/or conditions of patentability under the patent laws, including, but not limited to, 35 U.S.C. §§ 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Non-Infringement)

ASUS has not infringed and is not infringing, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, directly, indirectly, by inducement, contributorily, jointly, willfully, or in any other way, any valid or enforceable claim of U.S. Patent No. 7,629,634, and has not otherwise committed any acts in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

ASUS has not infringed and is not infringing, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, directly, indirectly, by inducement, contributorily, jointly, willfully, or in any other way, any valid or enforceable claim of U.S. Patent No. 7,847,346, and has not otherwise committed any acts in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Failure to State a Claim for Relief)

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Waiver and/or Prosecution History Estoppel)

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by reason of waiver and/or prosecution history estoppel. Plaintiff waived and/or is estopped from contending that any claim of the U.S. Patent No. 7,629,634 (the "'634 Patent") covers the accused products or processes by virtue of statements and admissions made by the named inventors and/or patent counsel during prosecution and proceedings before the USPTO. For example, Plaintiff is estopped for construing any claim of the '634 Patent to be infringed or to have been infringed, either literally or by application of the doctrine of equivalents, by any product made, used, imported, sold, or offered for sale by ASUS in view of prior art and/or because of admission, representations, and/or statements made to the Patent Office during prosecution of any application leading to the issuance of the '634 Patent or any related patent, because of disclosures or language in the specifications of the '634 Patent, and/or because of limitation in the claims of the '634 Patent.

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by reason of waiver and/or prosecution history estoppel. Plaintiff waived and/or is estopped from contending that any claim of the U.S. Patent No. 7,847,346 (the "'346 Patent") covers the accused products or processes by virtue of statements and admissions made by the named inventors and/or patent counsel during prosecution and proceedings before the USPTO. For example, Plaintiff is estopped for construing any claim of the '346 Patent to be infringed or to have been infringed, either literally or by application of the doctrine of equivalents, by any product made, used, imported, sold, or offered for sale by ASUS in view of prior art and/or because of admission, representations, and/or statements made to the Patent Office during prosecution of any application leading to the issuance of the '346 Patent or any related patent, because of disclosures or language in the specifications of the '346 Patent, and/or because of limitation in the claims of the '346 Patent.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(Limitation on Damages)

To the extent Plaintiff and/or any predecessors in interest or any licensees to U.S. Patent No. 7,629,634 and U.S. Patent No. 7,847,346 (collectively, the “Patents-in-Suit”) failed to properly mark any of their relevant products or materials as required by 35 U.S.C. § 287, or otherwise failed to give proper notice that ASUS’s actions allegedly infringed the Patents-in-Suit, ASUS is not liable to Plaintiff for the acts alleged to have been performed before ASUS received actual notice that the accused products were allegedly infringed the Patents-in-Suit.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Injunctive Relief / Adequate Remedy at Law)

Plaintiff is not entitled to injunctive relief because any injury to Plaintiff is not immediate or irreparable, Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law for any claims it asserts, and/or policy concerns weigh against injunctive relief.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Exceptional Case)

The Complaint fails to establish, and ASUS denies, that this case is an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
(No Willful Infringement)

Plaintiff’s claims for enhanced damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 are barred because Plaintiff has failed to meet, and cannot meet as a matter of law, the requirements for willful infringement.

RESERVATION OF ADDITIONAL DEFENSES

ASUS reserves the right to assert additional defenses that become apparent during discovery, including, but not limited to, the defenses of unclean hands, patent misuse, waiver, equitable estoppel, and inequitable conduct.

DEFENDANT/COUNTERCLAIM-PLAINTIFF'S COUNTERCLAIMS

As set forth above, Defendant/Counterclaim-Plaintiff ASUSTek Computer, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Counterclaim-Plaintiff" or "ASUS"), asserts the following Counterclaims against Plaintiff/Counterclaim-Defendant Force MOS Technology, Co., Ltd.

PARTIES

1. ASUSTek Computer, Inc. is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Taiwan, with a principal place of business at No. 15, Li-Te Road, Beitou District, Taipei 112, Taiwan.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Counterclaim-Plaintiff incorporates by reference the statements and allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-2 with the same force and effect as though fully rewritten herein.

4. These counterclaims arise under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code. Thus, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over these counterclaims pursuant to at least 35 U.S.C. § 271 et seq., 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338, 1367, and 2201-02.

6. Without waiving Counterclaim-Plaintiff's argument that venue is inconvenient under 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), and based solely on Counterclaim-Defendant's filing of this case in this District and to the extent that this case is not transferred for inconvenient venue, venue for Counterclaim-Plaintiff's Counterclaims is proper in this District pursuant to at least 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400.

Counterclaim-Plaintiff denies that it infringes the Patents-in-Suit. Thus, an actual and justiciable controversy exists between Counterclaim-Plaintiff and Counterclaim-Defendant as to whether or not Counterclaim-Plaintiff infringes any valid claim of the Patents-in-Suit.

17. Counterclaim-Plaintiff is entitled to a declaratory judgment that it has not infringed and is not infringing, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, any claim of the '346 Patent under any theory, including directly (whether individually or jointly) or indirectly (whether contributorily or by inducement).

THE '634 PATENT
