Dear counsel,

Thank you for informing the Board of the issues regarding the system outage and the exhibit numbering in Patent Owner's Responses. Patent Owner is authorized (1) to file corrected Responses that (a) indicate they are "Corrected" and (b) update only the exhibit numbers; (2) to file corrected exhibits, to the extent necessary; and (3) to serve the corrected documents on Petitioner. No motion is necessary.

Regards,

Andrew Kellogg,

Dear Honorable Board,

Per instructions I received over the phone this morning, I am writing to seek guidance from the Board on a second issue related to the Patent Owner Response filings referenced below. In attempting to get these responses on file via P-TACTS this morning after the outage, our team realized that the exhibit numbering in the responses is incorrect, as they begin with an exhibit number that has already been used in each of these proceedings. (The first exhibit to each of these filings should be Exhibit 2048, but the first exhibit is instead numbered Exhibit 2039, which was already used in connection with discretionary denial briefing.)

Please advise as to how we should proceed with the filing and service of corrected documents that address the exhibit numbering issue.

Respectfully submitted,
C. Austin Ginnings, Counsel for Patent Owner

Subject: IPR2025-01576 and -01577 | Patent Owner Responses

Dear Honorable Board,

Patent Owner in the above-referenced proceedings attempted to file its Patent Owner Responses and supporting exhibits via P-TACTS tonight, but it appears that the P-TACTS system is unavailable despite multiple attempts by Patent Owner to access the system and complete the filings over the past two hours. Patent Owner has served copies of the Patent Owner Responses and supporting exhibits on Petitioner's counsel (copied here) via separate email, per the Board's alternative methods for filing in such events. Patent Owner will follow up with filing of the documents via P-TACTS once the system is available, as well as with a motion requesting acceptance of the submissions.

Respectfully submitted,

C. Austin Ginnings, Counsel for Patent Owner
