Fast shipping

I've discovered ordering direct from the company that makes the product has faster shipping and better pricing. Been using their probiotic for over a year now and it is extremely effective at keeping my down there yeast levels normal.

How Dihydroberberine Supports Your Body

Dihydroberberine helps support healthy glucose metabolism and insulin sensitivity to help:

- Reduce blood sugar spikes and crashes
- Support balanced energy throughout the day
- Help manage cravings linked to blood sugar swings
- Support metabolic health over time

This is steady, supportive care—not a quick fix.

Up to 5x Better Absorption

Lower Dose, Same Support

Patented & Clinically Studied

Gentler on Digestion

Dihydroberberine is absorbed up to 5x better than standard berberine.

This allows your body to:

- Use more of what you take
- Support blood sugar balance more efficiently
- Avoid the excess that often causes stomach upset

Better absorption means steadier, more reliable support.

Gentle on Your Stomach

Because it requires a lower dose, Ultra Herbarome is generally easier for most people to process than formats that require

- Fast
- Efficient
- Unobtrusive assessment

You get the benefits of Berberine without the common downside.

Better Support With Fewer Pills

Suggested Use

Take 1 capsule once daily with a meal. Consistent use, along with a balanced diet and regular exercise, may help support healthy blood sugar levels, metabolism, and overall wellness.

Ingredients: our formula features patented GlucoVantage®, Dihydroberberine (DHB), a highly absorbable form of berberine designed to support metabolic health, balanced energy, and comfortable digestion. The formula is vegan, non-GMO, and made without unnecessary fillers.
