Counsel,

U.S. Patent No. 12,491,088 issued on December 9, 2025. Since issuance, we have evaluated the patent and determined that Medtronic's Catalyft and Elevate products infringe.

To add the '088 patent to the case, the pleadings will need to be amended. We therefore intend to file an amended complaint next week asserting this patent, after which Medtronic will have the opportunity to respond in the ordinary course.

We do not believe that adding this patent will require adjustments to the case schedule. If Medtronic disagrees, we are willing to discuss narrowly-tailored adjustments.

Please let us know whether Medtronic intends to oppose the amendment. We are happy to discuss next steps.
