Counsel,

From the Board –

Petitioner’s notice of intent to designate Noah M. Leibowitz as a provisionally recognized PTAB attorney as back-up counsel in IPR2026-00102 pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.10(c)(2) is acknowledged.

Mr. Leibowitz will be provisionally admitted, but the Notice of Intent (Paper 7) fails to list the most recent prior proceeding where Mr. Leibowitz was recognized pro hac vice (IPR2023-00501) and Mr. Leibowitz’s certification (Ex. 1045) fails to identify and attest to “All other proceedings before the Office for which the individual has applied to appear pro hac vice in the last three years” (Paper 3) (IPR2023-00249, IPR2023-00252, IPR2023-00501). Accordingly, Petitioner must refile its notice of intent and its certification including this missing information within 5 business days of this email.

We also note that although Mr. Leibowitz is included in the previously filed mandatory notices (Paper 1), 37 C.F.R. § 42.10(c)(2)(iii) provides that pro hac vice admission is effective upon filing an updated mandatory notice after the expiration of the objection time period (5 business days if no objection or 10 business days after an objection). After the applicable objection expiration date, Petitioner may file updated mandatory notices under 37 C.F.R. § 42.10(c)(2)(iii).
