4. The Client would very much welcome the opportunity to enter into constructive discussions with Amazon to determine whether the Client and Amazon can agree to a mutually acceptable patent license agreement or to otherwise understand how Amazon is not using the Client's patents. The Client is prepared to commence discussions with Amazon or your representative at your earliest convenience.
 5. In furtherance of the above, the Client asks you to provide a response to this letter addressing Amazon's use of the patents. The Client requests your response by August 22, 2024. Your response can be sent to us at lillian@shaked-law.com. You are also welcome to call us at +972-544693732.
 6. If we do not receive any response from Amazon by the date set forth above, our Client will assume that you are in agreement with the aforesaid and the Client will consider the manner in which it will enforce its rights and seek the remedies to which it is entitled.
 7. The Client reserves all of its rights and remedies under law and agreement and nothing in the foregoing letter shall be construed as waiving any of the same.

Sincerely,

Lillian Safran Shaked, Adv.
