Dear Mr. Kowalski,

We recently received an offer to acquire our intellectual property (IP) portfolio from one of your direct competitors.

Our IP portfolio offers a unique market advantage, encompassing comprehensive technology related to LBS, mapping and navigation, particularly for indoor applications.

It includes 19 granted patents and several pending applications, as well as prestigious trademarks such as "Indoor Navigation," "Indoor View," and "Indoor view .com"

We believe that our IP portfolio align well with your business and could provide a significant competitive edge.

As we evaluate the offers we have received, we wanted to give you a heads-up and future market success. This project is very dear to me, having originated in 2005, long before others ventured into this space. I would love to see it in capable hands!

Please share it with who need to know ,
Feel free to let me know if you'd like any further information
