Authorization or Opt-Out of Authorization to Permit Access:

When this Application Data Sheet is properly signed and filed with the application, applicant has provided written authority to permit a participating foreign intellectual property (IP) office access to the instant application-as-filed (see paragraph A in subsection 1 below) and the European Patent Office (EPO) access to any search results from the instant application (see paragraph B in subsection 1 below).

Should applicant choose not to provide an authorization identified in subsection 1 below, applicant must opt-out of the authorization by checking the corresponding box A or B or both in subsection 2 below.

NOTE: This section of the Application Data Sheet is ONLY reviewed and processed with the INITIAL filing of an application. After the initial filing of an application, an Application Data Sheet cannot be used to provide or rescind authorization for access by a foreign IP office(s). Instead, Form PTO/SB/39 or PTO/SB/69 must be used as appropriate.

1. Authorization to Permit Access by a Foreign Intellectual Property Office(s)

A. Priority Document Exchange (PDX) - Unless box A in subsection 2 (opt-out of authorization) is checked, the undersigned hereby grants the USPTO authority to provide the European Patent Office (EPO), the Japan Patent Office (JPO), the Korean Intellectual Property Office (KIPO), the State Intellectual Property Office of the People's Republic of China (SIPO), the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), and any other foreign intellectual property office participating with the USPTO in a bilateral or multilateral priority document exchange agreement in which a foreign application claiming priority to the instant patent application is filed, access to: (1) the instant patent application-as-filed and its related bibliographic data, (2) any foreign or domestic application to which priority or benefit is claimed by the instant application and its related bibliographic data, and (3) the date of filing of this Authorization. See 37 CFR 1.14(h)(1).

B. Search Results from U.S. Application to EPO - Unless box B in subsection 2 (opt-out of authorization) is checked, the undersigned hereby grants the USPTO authority to provide the EPO access to the bibliographic data and search results from the instant patent application when a European patent application claiming priority to the instant patent application is filed. See 37 CFR 1.14(h)(2).

The applicant is reminded that the EPO's Rule 141(1) EPC (European Patent Convention) requires applicants to submit a copy of search results from the instant application without delay in a European patent application that claims priority to the instant application.

2. Opt-Out of Authorizations to Permit Access by a Foreign Intellectual Property Office(s)

☐ A. Applicant DOES NOT authorize the USPTO to permit a participating foreign IP office access to the instant application-as-filed. If this box is checked, the USPTO will not be providing a participating foreign IP office with any documents and information identified in subsection 1A above.

☐ B. Applicant DOES NOT authorize the USPTO to transmit to the EPO any search results from the instant patent application. If this box is checked, the USPTO will not be providing the EPO with search results from the instant application.

NOTE: Once the application has published or is otherwise publicly available, the USPTO may provide access to the application in accordance with 37 CFR 1.14.

---------- EXPLANATION ----------

Claims 1-5 and 7-10 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by US 2021/0269019 to Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft.

Regarding Claim 1, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses a motor vehicle comprising: a frame (a motor vehicle with an automated pulling out system; BMW; Abstract; it is inherent that a motor vehicle will have a frame) having wheels (wheels 5a and 5b; Fig. 2b; [0053]); a motor connected to the frame (it is inherent that a motor vehicle will have a frame and motor); a steering control connected to the wheels to establish a steering angle (steerable wheels 5a and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling-out side, and a forward move 20 can be carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]); a controller (the processor of a motor vehicle controller which has software for carrying out the method; Para. [0042]) operably connected to the steering control, to the motor, and to the wheels; the controller operable to selectably drive the wheels in a forward direction in a drive mode and in a rearward direction in a reverse mode (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function, and at step 110 a linear reversing move is completed; Fig. 1; [0049]; after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]); and the controller (the processor of a motor vehicle controller which has software for carrying out the method; Para. [0042]) operable to select a direction for driving the wheels in response to a pattern of steering angle movements, without operator indication of a direction (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function, and at step 110 a linear reversing move is completed; Fig. 1; [0049]; after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Regarding Claim 2, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable to change from reverse mode to drive mode without operation of a selector by a driver (after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Regarding Claim 3, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable while the vehicle is underway in one of the forward and reverse directions, and has stopped momentarily, to determine whether to remain in the same direction or to change direction (during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]).

Regarding Claim 4, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the pattern of steering angle movements includes steering in a first direction, then steering in the opposite direction (a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]; during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]).

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43*bis*.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Regarding Claim 5, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift in response to a prior pattern of vehicle operation based on at least one of distance traveled, velocity profile, and steering angle profile (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function by selecting a parking menu on the display screen; Fig. 1; [0046]; the first move does not necessarily have to be a linear reversing move but rather instead a steered forward move can be selected as the first move; in dependence on the distances to the front boundary vehicle 2 and to the rear boundary vehicle 3; Fig. 1; [0050]).

Regarding Claim 7, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift only if velocities are less than a selected threshold (a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]; during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]; the vehicle comes to a stop before any change in direction).

Regarding Claim 8, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift only if distance traveled is less than a selected threshold (the first move does not necessarily have to be a linear reversing move but rather instead a steered forward movement; if there is very small distance to the rear vehicle 3 before beginning the parking maneuver and greater distance to the front vehicle 2, a steered forward movement may be selected; Fig. 1; [0050]; a steered forward movement includes fully locked wheels in the direction of a pull-out side and an automatic switching of the travel direction; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Regarding Claim 9, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift only if a first limited distance associated with vehicle length was covered with a steeling angle less than a first threshold (the automated parking maneuver begins in step 110 with a linear reversing move 10 in parallel to the curbstone 4, wherein the vehicle is moved back until it reaches or falls below a specific threshold value for the distance to the rear vehicle 3; Fig. 1; [0049]), and a second distance was traveled with a steering angle greater than a second selected threshold and in a first direction, and the vehicle subsequently stops, and the steering angle is adjusted to a second direction opposite the first direction (Fig. 2b illustrates the situation after carrying out the initial reversing move; steerable wheels 5a and 5b are now fully locked in the direction of the pulling-out side and after switching the travel direction, a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053-0055]).

Regarding Claim 10, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1 including a driver input device operably connected to the controller (a parking menu shown on a display screen in the center console; Fig. 1; [0046]), and wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift and enact the auto shift in response to a user acceptance action on the driver input device (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling out function by selecting a parking menu on the display screen in the center console by actuating a parking button, selecting the pulling out-side, and releasing the brake pedal; Fig. 1; [0046]; the automated parking maneuver begins in step 110 with a linear reversing move 10; for this purpose the reverse gear is engaged by the parking assistance system and the vehicle is accelerated and brought to a standstill in front of the rear vehicle; Fig. 1; [0049]).

Claim 6 lacks an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over US 2021/0269019 to Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft in view of US 2013/0144492 to Takano et al. (hereinafter, "Takano").

Regarding Claim 6, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle of claim 1.

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43*bis*.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft fails to explicitly disclose wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift only if steering angles in a limited prior period were greater than a selected threshold.

Takano teaches a parking mode selection apparatus for a vehicle (Takano; Abstract) wherein the controller is operable to offer an auto-shift only if steering angles in a limited prior period were greater than a selected threshold (when the steer angle is equal-to or smaller-than -30 degrees, it is judged whether or not the steer angle is equal to smaller than -60 degrees; when the steer angle is larger than -60 degrees it is judged that a left-side perpendicular parking is selected; Fig. 7; [0062-0063]; a left-side perpendicular parking includes a run forward on the right and then run backward to park perpendicularly on the left side; Para. [0003]).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art before the priority date to modify Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft with the steering angle features of Takano. The motivation for doing so would have been to allow judging of steering angles in order to determine selection of parking modes (Takano; [0065]), thereby improving operability and making parking target position easier to set (Takano; [0006]).

Claims 11-15 and 17-20 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over US 2021/0269019 to Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft in view of US 2020/0207334 to Hyundai Motor Company et al. (hereinafter, "Hyundai Motor Company").

Regarding Claim 11, Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses a motor vehicle control system comprising: a central processor; a vehicle having a frame (a motor vehicle with an automated pulling out system; BMW; Abstract; it is inherent that a motor vehicle will have a frame) having wheels (wheels 5a and 5b; Fig. 2b; [0053]); a motor connected to the frame (it is inherent that a motor vehicle will have a frame and motor); a steering control connected to the wheels to establish a steering angle steerable wheels 5a and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling-out side, and a forward move 20 can be carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]); a vehicle controller operably connected to central processor, and to the steering control, to the motor, and to the wheels (the processor of a motor vehicle controller which has software for carrying out the method; Para. [0042]); the controller operable to selectably drive the wheels in a forward direction in a drive mode and in a rearward direction in a reverse mode (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function, and at step 110 a linear reversing move is completed; Fig. 1; [0049]; after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]); and the vehicle controller (the processor of a motor vehicle controller which has software for carrying out the method; Para. [0042]) operable in response to gear changing information from the central controller to select a direction for driving the wheels, without operator indication of a direction (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function, and at step 110 a linear reversing move is completed; Fig. 1; [0049]; after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft fails to explicitly disclose a fleet of multitudes of vehicles operably connected to the processor to transmit fleet driving and gear changing data to the processor; and the central processor operable based on the fleet driving and gear changing data to generate gear changing information.

Hyundai Motor Company teaches a system, method, infrastructure and vehicle for supporting automated valet parking (Hyundai Motor Co; Abstract), comprising a fleet of multitudes of vehicles (the infrastructure facility identifies a multitude of drivers and vehicles to determine whether the driver and the vehicle are qualified to park in the parking lot; Fig. 4A; [0055]) operably connected to the processor (the infrastructure facility; Fig. 4A; [0055]) to transmit fleet driving and gear changing data to the processor; and the central processor operable based on the fleet driving and gear changing data to generate gear changing information (when the vehicle proceeds to an autonomous parking step, the driving authority of the vehicle is delegates from the vehicle to the infrastructure facility; the driving authority means an authority to drive and control vehicle operations such as steering, accelerating, braking, and gear shifting; Fig. 4A; [0055]).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art before the priority date to modify Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft with the centralized fleet features of Hyundai Motor Company. The motivation for doing so would have been to allow a vehicle to autonomously park using established communications with an infrastructure facility; (Hyundai Motor Company; [0007]), thereby making vehicle parking safer and more convenient; (Hyundai Motor Company; [0004]).

Regarding Claim 12, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the vehicle controller is operable to change from reverse mode to drive mode without operation of a selector by a driver (after carrying out the initial reversing move, the steerable wheels 5a, and 5b are fully locked in the direction of the pulling out side, and an automatic switching of travel direction and forward move 20 is carried out; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Regarding Claim 13, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the vehicle controller is operable while the vehicle is underway in one of the forward and reverse directions, and has stopped momentarily, to determine whether to remain in the same direction or to change direction (during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]).

Regarding Claim 14, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the fleet driving and gear changing data includes steering in a first direction, then steering in the opposite direction (a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]; during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]).

Regarding Claim 15, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the vehicle controller is operable to offer an auto-shift in response to a prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation based on at least one of distance traveled, velocity profile, and steering angle profile (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling-out function by selecting a parking menu on the display screen; Fig. 1; [0046]; the first move does not necessarily have to be a linear reversing move but rather instead a steered forward move can be selected as the first move; in dependence on the distances to the front boundary vehicle 2 and to the rear boundary vehicle 3; Fig. 1; [0050]).

Regarding Claim 17, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation includes if fleet vehicle velocities were less than a selected threshold (a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053]; during the forward move 20 or immediately after the end of the forward move, it is checked in the query 130 whether the vehicle 1 could leave the parking space, if this is the case, after switching the travel direction and straightening the wheels 5a and 5b, the linear reversing move 30 is carried out; Fig. 2c; [0055-0056]; the vehicle comes to a stop before any change in direction).

Regarding Claim 18, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation includes if fleet vehicle distance traveled is less than a selected threshold (the first move does not necessarily have to be a linear reversing move but rather instead a steered forward movement; if there is very small distance to the rear vehicle 3 before beginning the parking maneuver and greater distance to the front vehicle 2, a steered forward movement may be selected; Fig. 1; [0050]; a steered forward movement includes fully locked wheels in the direction of a pull-out side and an automatic switching of the travel direction; Fig. 2b; [0053]).

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43*bis*.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Regarding Claim 19, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 wherein the prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation includes if, for fleet vehicles, a first limited distance associated with vehicle length was covered with a steering angle less than a first threshold (the automated parking maneuver begins in step 110 with a linear reversing move 10 in parallel to the curbstone 4, wherein the vehicle is moved back until it reaches or falls below a specific threshold value for the distance to the rear vehicle 3; Fig. 1; [0049]), and a second distance was traveled with a steering angle greater than a second selected threshold and in a first direction, and the vehicle subsequently stops, and the steering angle is adjusted to a second direction opposite the first direction (Fig. 2b illustrates the situation after carrying out the initial reversing move; steerable wheels 5a and 5b are now fully locked in the direction of the pulling-out side and after switching the travel direction, a forward move 20 is carried out with full steering lock; Fig. 2b; [0053-0055]).

Regarding Claim 20, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11 including a driver input device operably connected to the vehicle controller (a parking menu shown on a display screen in the center console; Fig. 1; [0046]), and wherein the vehicle controller is operable to offer an auto-shift and enact the auto shift in response to a user acceptance action on the driver input device (in step 100, the driver activates the pulling out function by selecting a parking menu on the display screen in the center console by actuating a parking button, selecting the pulling out-side, and releasing the brake pedal; Fig. 1; [0046]; the automated parking maneuver begins in step 110 with a linear reversing move 10; for this purpose the reverse gear is engaged by the parking assistance system and the vehicle is accelerated and brought to a standstill in front of the rear vehicle; Fig. 1; [0049]).

Claim 16 lacks an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over US 2021/0269019 to Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft in view of US 2020/0207334 to Hyundai Motor Company et al. (hereinafter, "Hyundai Motor Company") and US 2013/0144492 to Takano et al. (hereinafter, "Takano").

Regarding Claim 16, modified Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft discloses the motor vehicle control system of claim 11.

Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft fails to explicitly disclose wherein the prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation includes if fleet vehicle steering angles leading to a shift were greater than a selected threshold.

Takano teaches a parking mode selection apparatus for a vehicle (Takano; Abstract) wherein the prior pattern of fleet vehicle operation includes if fleet vehicle steering angles leading to a shift were greater than a selected threshold (when the steer angle is equal-to or smaller-than -30 degrees, it is judged whether or not the steer angle is equal to smaller than -60 degrees; when the steer angle is larger than -60 degrees it is judged that a left-side perpendicular parking is selected; Fig. 7; [0062-0063]; a left-side perpendicular parking includes a run forward on the right and then run backward to park perpendicularly on the left side; Para. [0003]).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art before the priority date to modify Bayerische Motoren Werke Aktiengesellschaft with the steering angle features of Takano. The motivation for doing so would have been to allow judging of steering angles in order to determine selection of parking modes (Takano; [0065]), thereby improving operability and making parking target position easier to set (Takano; [0006]).

Claims 1-20 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus have industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.

VEHICLE GEAR SELECTION CONTROL

Cross-Reference to Related Application

[0001] This application is a Continuation of U.S. Patent Application Number 18/403,221 filed on January 3, 2024, entitled "VEHICLE GEAR SELECTION CONTROL," which is a Continuation-in-Part of U.S. Patent Application Number 18/205,823 filed on June 5, 2023 now issued as U.S. Patent Number 11,932,230, entitled "VEHICLE GEAR SELECTION CONTROL," which are hereby incorporated by reference in its entirety for all that is taught and disclosed therein.

Field of the Invention

[0002] The present invention relates to motor vehicles and operational control systems.

Background and Summary

[0003] Traditional motor vehicles have gear selection controls using a lever or physical buttons. Modern vehicles may employ computer touchscreen control, such as swiping up on the left edge of the screen to go forward and down to go in reverse. All these controls have a direction or element associated with each direction, and the driver indicates by the control operation which direction is desired.

[0004] In contrast, some vehicles have advanced gear or direction selection is special circumstances. Some may select a direction automatically when initially proceeding from a parked condition. Vehicle vision of other sensors may detect a circumstance in which there is an obstacle such as a wall in one direction and only one apparent direction to proceed. The system may then offer the driver that proposed direction, and the driver then for safety reasons indicates (such as by a tap on the brake) that the proposed direction is safe and correct.

[0005] It is notable that the driver confirmation of the direction is provided by a control input that conveys no direction information and is the same input regardless of direction proposed. The switch is a simple binary switch, without multiple positions as in a traditional shift stalk, or different directions to swipe such as on a touch screen interface.

In this version, the only input from the driver is acceptance, unless the driver disagrees and inputs the other direction with the usual input selection interface.

[0006] It is further noted that the automated vehicle-proposed direction system is limited to starting from a stopped condition, when the vehicle initially is not in gear or being operated. Parking spaces normally may have obstacles on one direction opposite the direction of entry. The existing system is unsuitable for gear changes while underway and operating the vehicle, which are rare except when encountering unexpected obstacles and in routine parking and unparking maneuvers, in which case the user selection of direction is always indicated deliberately each time.

[0007] While effective, these gear direction systems may have disadvantages, or have an opportunity for automation to provide convenience. This especially occurs during routine parking when backing out of a parking space, stopping, then selecting the forward drive direction. This may be the only frequent need for a screen swipe to indicate direction in vehicles with sensor initial direction proposals. The screen swipe may be a distraction, require visual observation to reach a small area, and may be a non-intuitive direction for some users. The distractions may arise when in a parking lot context when traffic may come from different direction, when other drivers may have distracted attention, and in which pedestrians and obstacles may be present.

[0008] Accordingly, there is a need for a motor vehicle having a frame with wheels and a motor connected to the frame. A steering control is connected to the wheels to establish a steering angle. A controller is operably connected to the steering control, to the motor, and to the wheels, and is operable to selectably drive the wheels in a forward direction in a drive mode and in a rearward direction in a reverse mode. The controller is operable to select a direction for driving the wheels in response to a pattern of steering angle movements, without operator indication of a direction.

Brief Description of the Drawings

Detailed Description of a Preferred Embodiment

[0012] As shown schematically in Figure 1, the system operates in a vehicle 10 having a frame or body 12 having wheels 14 that are driven by a motor 16. Brakes 20 are associated with each wheel and a brake cylinder 22 operates the brakes. A steering system 24 steers the front wheels.

[0014] At the driver's side of the display near the left edge as shown, a vertical bar 38 may be displayed to provide a gear shift control. An upward swipe indicates a selection of forward travel in "drive" gear, and downward swipe indicates "reverse" for driving rearward for backing up.

[0015] Vehicle controls include a steering wheel or yoke 40 that is connected to the controller and may in some instances be selectably mechanically connected to the steering system 24 to enable direct mechanical control by the driver, electronic control by the driver via the controller, autonomous control by the controller with actuators or the mechanical connection moving the steering wheel in concert with the wheel angle, and combinations of these as selected or indicated by conditions. Similarly, an accelerator pedal 42 and brake pedal 44 are connected respectively to the motor 16, brake system 22, via the controller and optionally with some direct connection for driver and controller control over these functions.

[0016] The typical operation of the system is in the context of "unparking," when a driver backs out of a parking spot in reverse, steers to adjust direction while reversing, then shifts to drive, steers the other direction, then straightens out to proceed. This is most typically illustrated in perpendicular head-in parking lot parking, in which the parking space is perpendicular to the aisle for the flow of traffic along the parking spots. An angled parking lot with parking spots indicated with a herringbone pattern of stripes has a similar pattern of operation, with gentler steering angles. Parallel parking has its own configuration. Residential garages and driveways are often like perpendicular parking, but there are many variations.

[0018] Figure 2 is a chart 100 that illustrates the sequence of unparking. The upper trace 110 indicates steering wheel angle on a time-based horizontal chart. The lower trace 120 indicates velocity. The lower images A-F depict the vehicle 130 in a parking space 132, and are located at their relative positions on the time axis. At position A, the vehicle is parked, with steering wheel straight, front wheels in line with the axis of the vehicle, and zero velocity. The vehicle maintains the steering wheel at zero steering angle as it accelerates to a slow speed to move straight rearward.

[0019] As it moves to the rear, position B indicates when the nose of the vehicle is clear of adjacent parked cars and may now be turned to a significant angle to enable the vehicle to curve with a tight radius due to presumed obstacles on the other side of the parking lot aisle 134 it is backing into.

[0020] The vehicle continues rearward through position C, with wheels turned sharply, then after it passes C and approaches an angle that enables forward departure past the adjacent vehicle that was to its left, the vehicle slows to a stop at D.

[0021] The wheel angle may begin reducing before D, but between D and E, the vehicle is briefly stopped, and the vehicle is manually shifted from reverse to drive as shown in the existing prior art screen swipe 136 or (in the case of the preferred embodiment) may be suggested by the vehicle based on presumptions discussed in detail below, and preferably confirmed by the driver by an approval response such as a brake tap sequence 140 or other non-direction indicating signal such as a button click, voice command, or visually-detected gesture. During the stopped D-E period, the wheel is turned sharply from one direction away from straight, back past straight, and to the opposite direction to clear the adjacent vehicle as it proceeds forward.

[0022] Beyond E, the vehicle drives forward at increasing speeds that are above a threshold normally reserved for parking operations and higher for parking lot transit, or roadways that may serve as the "aisle."

[0024] The controller may be programmed with specific functions or algorithms as to when an auto-shift is clearly safe to offer or enact, and when if offered, acceptance by the driver is likely desired and not an unwanted distraction. The controller may be programmed by artificial intelligence data derived from multitudes of parking lot navigations to determine actual patterns when auto-shifting might be safely offered, avoiding simpler criteria and functions as offered below for simplicity. However, if the disclosed functions are based on wheel angle patterns, velocity patterns, with certain thresholds of their various amounts, derivatives, and integrals, it is believed that typical drivers will naturally be following certain functions of the same parameters, and AI systems would simply derive the rules from typical driver behavior. In such embodiments the driver may be offered an auto-shift (or an auto shift implemented without consent) only when the likelihood of it being desired is greater than a preselected threshold, and when other safety criteria are met.

[0025] Figure 3 shows an AI system 200 employing these principles. The system operates with a network or fleet 210 of a multitude of vehicles operating normally by private owners to train a central system 220 with immense processing ability to receive and analyze the video and input data from the fleet. The central system may be otherwise occupied to gather driving data to provide all other aspects of self-driving or autonomous vehicle operation. The fleet vehicles may be selected or curated as superior or model drivers. The fleet vehicle behavior when naturally engaging in gear changing (typically Reverse to Drive) is recorded over multitudes of cases, including edge cases with unusual circumstances. The recorded behavior data may be video streams from vehicle cameras, and vehicle control inputs such as steering angle, accelerator and brake usage, and gear changing inputs. From these interactions, the central system learns the patterns and combinations of inputs that suggest with a selected degree of confidence that a gear change is desired, and should be enacted or offered for the user driver ratification. The user driver vehicle processor employs the network-learned behavior patterns without necessarily having preprogrammed algorithms or rules for the conditions (ranges of velocities, accelerations, durations, or angles, etc.) suggesting a gear change is desired. The system simply refers to the mass of fleet behavioral data to find confident commonalities of circumstances.

[0026] One criterion is vehicle speed. Obviously, the shifting is offered only for when the vehicle is essentially stationary or at near zero speed. But the speed prior to this, when departing the parking spot between positions B and C, may be pertinent to the question of whether the vehicle is intentionally unparking. The function may be based on maximum speed, or an average speed over a certain distance. Above a certain speed, auto shift would never be offered, and even speeds that might be common but not ideal for unparking might not receive an auto-shift offer. This would serve to train cautious driver behavior, especially if the entity determining the thresholds were associated with vehicle insurance liability.

[0027] Another criterion is steering angle. Large steering angles are associated with slower speeds, and only slight angles are used at high speeds. But beyond speed alone, steering angles are larger for unparking. While a capacious parking lot with wide aisles might not require as sharp steering angles, they may still follow clear patterns to offer auto-shift.

[0028] Position is another element. Velocity and steering angle thresholds may be adequate, but more details patterns will tend to be associated with unparking. As shown, the vehicle proceeds for about one car length from A to B before introducing steering angle. It then proceeds for another limited distance related to conditions and vehicle length with a substantial steering angle.

[0029] Speed, steering angle, and position may be determined by sensors on the vehicle, or may be calculated or inferred by other sources, including vehicle cameras or vision systems that create a model of the environment and the vehicle's relationship to it, and GPS and other sensors.

[0030] Reversing the steering angle when slowing or after stopping is the final signal preferably to verify the appropriateness of an auto-shift offer.

[0031] Errors of enacted shifts are intolerable as they may cause accidents, so approval preferably needs to be indicated before an offered shift is enacted. Approval may be withheld in cases in which the driver may reverse for a time, give some indications of unparking, then proceed farther to the rear. The system should assess whether the vehicle has backed out enough and to a suitable angle to enable departure without conflict, so that if inadequately backed out, a premature auto-shift offer is not made.

[0032] Approval may be indicated in a wide range of ways. With the driver's foot on the brake for slowing to a stop after reversing, brake operation is one option. After stopping, the driver might release and tap the brake to accept the shift. With many vehicles offering one-pedal driving, and slowing automatically as the accelerator pedal is released, the driver's foot might shift over to tap the brake.

[0033] Acceptance can be indicated by clicking any button, operating any control, tapping the screen (but without needing to indicate a direction as the vehicle has offered the direction and no indication is needed). Voice consent may be provided, and a driver may gesture to accept, such as by a head nod indicating approved forward movement, as recognized by a cabin camera viewing the driver. Vehicles with scroll buttons on opposite sides of the steering wheel accessible to thumbs are well suited to serve as consent input, such as by clicking both wheels simultaneously.

[0034] Unparking from angled spaces on a street curb or a parking lot with aisles will be similar, and have some differences due to different geometries. For instance, steering angles will differ, and velocities may be necessarily brisker when pulling into a roadway to clear traffic. Auto-shifting may reduce exposer to traffic and enable safe unparking with smaller traffic gaps by reducing the D-E time period that would be taken enacting a manual shift, with the attendant distraction.

[0035] Unparking from parallel parking is more complex and has its own patterns, but the system could learn or implement these patterns. Parallel parking is much like backing into a perpendicular parking spot, in that the driver begins by going past an open parking spot, should have signaled, and then backs up into the spot. This is potentially challenging because one normally doesn't shift to reverse upon simply pausing in a parking lot or a city street with parallel spaces beside. But in special detected circumstances the auto- shift can be proposed by the system. Based on sensing an available spot, preferably in the context of a known arrival at a navigated destination, optionally based on turn signal actuation to indicate a desire to park in a detected available space at the destination. Auto-park offering may be limited only when navigating and having arrived at a programmed destination.

[0036] In some embodiments, the system may be trained based on location, with the vehicle controller having a GPS system that identities the vehicle location. This may be employed to provide confident suggestions of auto shift at a frequent location (such as home and packing out of a garage or driveway before turning and shifting into drive) where the vehicle follows the same pattern essentially every time. "Always shift here" is a useful command to enable to driver to ensure that a shift is suggested. In certain circumstances, the shift may even be optionally made automatically without requiring driver approval. Locations other than home (such as work, or any place frequented) may be used to offer an auto-shift option by the vehicle prompting the user to ask whether they want to always auto shift at that location.

[0037] Some systems may gain enough information about whether to offer auto-shift upon initial arrival at a parking space, based on the images collected by the vehicle vision system as it approaches and enters the parking space. It may be unnecessary to gather more info by the vehicle's operation upon exiting the spot as is proposed above.

[0038] Other systems may simply employ distance traveled information, offering an auto-shift any time a vehicle reverses and stops within a selected distance typical for such parking lots (such as 2-3 car lengths). This would avoid offering an auto shift upon vehicle stoppage such as might occur to yield to cross traffic when having reversed less than a car length, although an offer of auto-shift may be ignored.

[0039] The system may also employ vehicle location data from GPS or geofence and enable or disable the auto-shift based on location. The feature may be limited to a user's home where the driving action is consistent every day, and disabled in public parking lots. It may be enabled at "favorite" locations where there may be consistency or other basis for driver confidence or need for convenience. This may be treated like suspension adjustments that are enabled at certain locations and may be offered as a "do you want to auto-shift at this location in the future?" prompt.

PROTECTING YOUR INVENTION OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

Since the rights granted by a U.S. patent extend only throughout the territory of the United States and have no effect in a foreign country, an inventor who wishes patent protection in another country must apply for a patent in a specific country or in regional patent offices. Applicants may wish to consider the filing of an international application under the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT). An international (PCT) application generally has the same effect as a regular national patent application in each PCT-member country. The PCT process simplifies the filing of patent applications on the same invention in member countries, but does not result in a grant of "an international patent" and does not eliminate the need of applicants to file additional documents and fees in countries where patent protection is desired.

Almost every country has its own patent law, and a person desiring a patent in a particular country must make an application for patent in that country in accordance with its particular laws. Since the laws of many countries differ in various respects from the patent law of the United States, applicants are advised to seek guidance from specific foreign countries to ensure that patent rights are not lost prematurely.

Applicants also are advised that in the case of inventions made in the United States, the Director of the USPTO must issue a license before applicants can apply for a patent in a foreign country. The filing of a U.S. patent application serves as a request for a foreign filing license. The application's filing receipt contains further information and guidance as to the status of applicant's license for foreign filing.

Applicants may wish to consult the USPTO booklet, "General Information Concerning Patents" (specifically, the section entitled "Treaties and Foreign Patents") for more information on timeframes and deadlines for filing foreign patent applications. The guide is available either by contacting the USPTO Contact Center at 800-786-9199, or it can be viewed on the USPTO website at http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/pac/doc/general/index.html.

For information on preventing theft of your intellectual property (patents, trademarks and copyrights), you may wish to consult the U.S. Government website, http://www.stopfakes.gov. Part of a Department of Commerce initiative, this website includes self-help "toolkits" giving innovators guidance on how to protect intellectual property in specific countries such as China, Korea and Mexico. For questions regarding patent enforcement issues, applicants may call the U.S. Government hotline at 1-866-999-HALT (1-866-999-4258).

LICENSE FOR FOREIGN FILING UNDER

Title 35, United States Code, Section 184

Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, 5.11 & 5.15

GRANTED

The applicant has been granted a license under 35 U.S.C. 184, if the phrase "IF REQUIRED, FOREIGN FILING LICENSE GRANTED" followed by a date appears on this form. Such licenses are issued in all applications where the conditions for issuance of a license have been met, regardless of whether or not a license may be required as set forth in 37 CFR 5.15. The scope and limitations of this license are set forth in 37 CFR 5.15(a) unless an earlier license has been issued under 37 CFR 5.15(b). The license is subject to revocation upon written notification. The date indicated is the effective date of the license, unless an earlier license of similar scope has been granted under 37 CFR 5.13 or 5.14.

This license is to be retained by the licensee and may be used at any time on or after the effective date thereof unless it is revoked. This license is automatically transferred to any related applications(s) filed under 37 CFR 1.53(d). This license is not retroactive.

The grant of a license does not in any way lessen the responsibility of a licensee for the security of the subject matter as imposed by any Government contract or the provisions of existing laws relating to espionage and the national security or the export of technical data. Licensees should apprise themselves of current regulations especially with respect to certain countries, of other agencies, particularly the Office of Defense Trade Controls, Department of State (with respect to Arms, Munitions and Implements of War (22 CFR 121-128)); the Bureau of Industry and Security, Department of Commerce (15 CFR parts 730-774); the Office of Foreign AssetsControl, Department of Treasury (31 CFR Parts 500+) and the Department of Energy.

NOT GRANTED

No license under 35 U.S.C. 184 has been granted at this time, if the phrase "IF REQUIRED, FOREIGN FILING LICENSE GRANTED" DOES NOT appear on this form. Applicant may still petition for a license under 37 CFR 5.12, if a license is desired before the expiration of 6 months from the filing date of the application. If 6 months has lapsed from the filing date of this application and the licensee has not received any indication of a secrecy order under 35 U.S.C. 181, the licensee may foreign file the application pursuant to 37 CFR 5.15(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 112(b):
(b) CONCLUSION.—The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the inventor or a joint inventor regards as the invention.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 112 (pre-AIA), second paragraph:
The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2, 3, 9, 10, 12, 13, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112(b) or 35 U.S.C. 112 (pre-AIA), second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which the inventor or a joint inventor (or for applications subject to pre-AIA 35 U.S.C. 112, the applicant), regards as the invention.

Claim 2 recites the limitation "the brake pedal" in lines 3-4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 2, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the brake pedal" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 2, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the brake" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 2, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 9 recites the limitation "and reverse mode" in lines 2-3 and 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether the first instance of this limitation in lines 2-3 should be changed to - -and a reverse mode- -.

Claim 10 recites the limitation "the brake" in line 6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 10, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 12 recites the limitation "the brake pedal" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 12, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 13 recites the limitation "the brake pedal" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 12, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 13 recites the limitation "the brake" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether this limitation should be changed to - -the brake control- - (see, for reference, Claim 12, line 1, “a brake control”).

Claim 19 recites the limitation "the drive mode" in lines 2 and 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether the first instance of this limitation in line 2 should be changed to - -a drive mode- -.

Claim 19 recites the limitation "and reverse mode" in lines 2-3 and 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. It is unclear whether the first instance of this limitation in lines 2-3 should be changed to - -and a reverse mode- -.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on nonstatutory double patenting provided the reference application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with the examined application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement. See MPEP § 717.02 for applications subject to examination under the first inventor to file provisions of the AIA as explained in MPEP § 2159. See MPEP § 2146 et seq. for applications not subject to examination under the first inventor to file provisions of the AIA. A terminal disclaimer must be signed in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(b).

The filing of a terminal disclaimer by itself is not a complete reply to a nonstatutory double patenting (NSDP) rejection. A complete reply requires that the terminal disclaimer be accompanied by a reply requesting reconsideration of the prior Office action. Even where the NSDP rejection is provisional the reply must be complete. See MPEP § 804, subsection I.B.1. For a reply to a non-final Office action, see 37 CFR 1.111(a). For a reply to final Office action, see 37 CFR 1.113(c). A request for reconsideration while not provided for in 37 CFR 1.113(c) may be filed after final for consideration. See MPEP §§ 706.07(e) and 714.13.

The USPTO Internet website contains terminal disclaimer forms which may be used. Please visit www.uspto.gov/patent/patents-forms. The actual filing date of the application in which the form is filed determines what form (e.g., PTO/SB/25, PTO/SB/26, PTO/AIA/25, or PTO/AIA/26) should be used. A web-based eTerminal Disclaimer may be filled out completely online using web-screens. An eTerminal Disclaimer that meets all requirements is auto-processed and approved immediately upon submission. For more information about eTerminal Disclaimers, refer to www.uspto.gov/patents/apply/applying-online/eterminal-disclaimer.

Claims 1, 2, 8, 9, 11, 12, 18 and 19 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting as being unpatentable over Claim 11 of U.S. Patent No. 11,932,230. Although the claims at issue are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the limitations of Claims 1, 2, 8, 9, 11, 12, 18 and 19 of the instant application are fully contained by Claim 11 of US 11,932,230.

Claim 1-3, 8, 9, 11-13, 18 and 19 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 3, 8 and 9 of copending Application No. 18/928,128 (reference application). Although the claims at issue are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the limitations of Claims 1-3, 8, 9, 11-13, 18 and 19 of the instant application are fully contained by Claims 3, 8 and 9 of Application No. 18/928,128.

This is a provisional nonstatutory double patenting rejection because the patentably indistinct claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim 1, 8, 11 and 18 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting as being unpatentable over Claim 10 of copending Application No. 18/928,131 (reference application). Although the claims at issue are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the limitations of Claims 1, 8, 11 and 18 of the instant application are fully contained by Claim 10 of Application No. 18/928,131.

This is a provisional nonstatutory double patenting rejection because the patentably indistinct claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim 1-20 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 1 and 4-11 of copending Application No. 18/928,134 (reference application). Although the claims at issue are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the limitations of Claims 1-20 of the instant application are fully contained by Claims 1 and 4-11 of Application No. 18/928,134.

This is a provisional nonstatutory double patenting rejection because the patentably indistinct claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim 1-5, 7-9, 11-15 and 17-19 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory double patenting as being unpatentable over Claims 3-5 and 7-9 of copending Application No. 18/928,137 (reference application). Although the claims at issue are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the limitations of Claims 1-5, 7-9, 11-15 and 17-19 of the instant application are fully contained by Claims 3-5 and 7-9 of Application No. 18/928,137.

This is a provisional nonstatutory double patenting rejection because the patentably indistinct claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-20 would be allowable should the double patenting rejections above be overcome and if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112(b) or 35 U.S.C. 112 (pre-AIA), 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art does not disclose nor render obvious a motor vehicle for operation by a driver including a steering control operable by the driver to generate a steering input; the drive system operable based on the steering input to offer the driver a change in the drive direction, in combination with the other elements required by independent Claim 1.

The prior art does not disclose nor render obvious a motor vehicle for operation by a driver including a steering control operable by the driver to generate a steering input; the controller operable based on the steering input to offer the driver a change in the drive direction, in combination with the other elements required by independent Claim 11.

One of ordinary skill in the art would have no rationale, absent hindsight, to modify the prior art to derive the claimed invention since the above mentioned limitations, in combination with the other claim limitations, are considered new and nonobvious improvements over the prior art.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

SHIVAPRASAD et al. (US 2024/0051558 A1) discloses a vehicle control system wherein an autoshift is offered to a driver and enacted upon a driver approval indication. Note, the earliest effective filing date of SHIVAPRASAD et al. associated with the provisional application 63/371,370 is 8/12/2022, which precedes Applicant's earliest effective filing date of 6/5/2023. However, this provisional application does not disclose the above mentioned limitations indicated as allowable subject matter. All relevant passages in US 2024/0051558 A1 which may describe similar features as those recited in the above mentioned limitations indicated as allowable subject matter were newly presented in the non-provisional application dated 8/14/2023. Therefore, US 2024/0051558 A1 has an effective filing date of 8/14/2023 for all subject matter that is newly presented from provisional application 63/371,370. As the effective filing date for the relevant portions of US 2024/0051558 A1 is 8/14/2023 and is subsequent Applicant's earliest effective filing date of 6/5/2023, US 2024/0051558 A1 cannot be used as a prior art reference against the above mentioned limitations indicated as allowable subject matter.

THE APPLICATION IDENTIFIED ABOVE HAS BEEN EXAMINED AND IS ALLOWED FOR ISSUANCE AS A PATENT. PROSECUTION ON THE MERITS IS CLOSED. THIS NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE IS NOT A GRANT OF PATENT RIGHTS. THIS APPLICATION IS SUBJECT TO WITHDRAWAL FROM ISSUE AT THE INITIATIVE OF THE OFFICE OR UPON PETITION BY THE APPLICANT. SEE 37 CFR 1.313 AND MPEP 1308.

THE ISSUE FEE AND PUBLICATION FEE (IF REQUIRED) MUST BE PAID WITHIN THREE MONTHS FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS NOTICE OR THIS APPLICATION SHALL BE REGARDED AS ABANDONED. THIS STATUTORY PERIOD CANNOT BE EXTENDED. SEE 35 U.S.C. 151. THE ISSUE FEE DUE INDICATED ABOVE DOES NOT REFLECT A CREDIT FOR ANY PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE IN THIS APPLICATION. IF AN ISSUE FEE HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN PAID IN THIS APPLICATION (AS SHOWN ABOVE), THE RETURN OF PART B OF THIS FORM WILL BE CONSIDERED A REQUEST TO REAPPLY THE PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE TOWARD THE ISSUE FEE NOW DUE.

HOW TO REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

If the ENTITY STATUS is changed from that shown above, on PART B - FEE(S) TRANSMITTAL, complete section number 5 titled "Change in Entity Status (from status indicated above)".

For purposes of this notice, small entity fees are 40% the amount of undiscounted fees, and micro entity fees are 20% the amount of undiscounted fees.

II. PART B - FEE(S) TRANSMITTAL, or its equivalent, must be completed and returned to the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) with your ISSUE FEE and PUBLICATION FEE (if required). If you are charging the fee(s) to your deposit account, section "4b" of Part B - Fee(s) Transmittal should be completed. If an equivalent of Part B is filed, a request to reapply a previously paid issue fee must be clearly made, and delays in processing may occur due to the difficulty in recognizing the paper as an equivalent of Part B.

III. All communications regarding this application must give the application number. Please direct all communications prior to issuance to Mail Stop ISSUE FEE unless advised to the contrary.

IMPORTANT REMINDER: Maintenance fees are due in utility patents issuing on applications filed on or after Dec. 12, 1980. It is patentee's responsibility to ensure timely payment of maintenance fees when due. More information is available at www.uspto.gov/PatentMaintenanceFees.

Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b)
(Applications filed on or after May 29, 2000)

The Office has discontinued providing a Patent Term Adjustment (PTA) calculation with the Notice of Allowance.

Section 1(h)(2) of the AIA Technical Corrections Act amended 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(3)(B)(i) to eliminate the requirement that the Office provide a patent term adjustment determination with the notice of allowance. See Revisions to Patent Term Adjustment, 78 Fed. Reg. 19416, 19417 (Apr. 1, 2013). Therefore, the Office is no longer providing an initial patent term adjustment determination with the notice of allowance. The Office will continue to provide a patent term adjustment determination with the Issue Notification Letter that is mailed to applicant approximately three weeks prior to the issue date of the patent, and will include the patent term adjustment on the patent. Any request for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment determination (or reinstatement of patent term adjustment) should follow the process outlined in 37 CFR 1.705.

Any questions regarding the Patent Term Extension or Adjustment determination should be directed to the Office of Patent Legal Administration at (571)-272-7702. Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at 1-(888)-786-0101 or (571)-272-4200.

OMB Clearance and PRA Burden Statement for PTOL-85 Part B

The Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) of 1995 requires Federal agencies to obtain Office of Management and Budget approval before requesting most types of information from the public. When OMB approves an agency request to collect information from the public, OMB (i) provides a valid OMB Control Number and expiration date for the agency to display on the instrument that will be used to collect the information and (ii) requires the agency to inform the public about the OMB Control Number's legal significance in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.5(b).

The information collected by PTOL-85 Part B is required by 37 CFR 1.311. The information is required to obtain or retain a benefit by the public which is to file (and by the USPTO to process) an application. Confidentiality is governed by 35 U.S.C. 122 and 37 CFR 1.14. This collection is estimated to take 30 minutes to complete, including gathering, preparing, and submitting the completed application form to the USPTO. Time will vary depending upon the individual case. Any comments on the amount of time you require to complete this form and/or suggestions for reducing this burden, should be sent to the Chief Information Officer, U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. Department of Commerce, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450. DO NOT SEND FEES OR COMPLETED FORMS TO THIS ADDRESS. SEND TO: Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450. Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number.
