Manufacturing and delivering devices on a global scale

We play a critical role in planning, supplier selection, production, and logistics for products such as Echo devices, Kindle e-readers, Fire tablets, Fire TVs, and Astro consumer robots. We work to create a scalable, cost-optimized supply chain. This ensures our devices can be shipped to customers all around the world.

You'll be able to partner with teams across hardware engineering, product management, sales, and more on fulfillment of product launches. As our portfolio grows, we work to scale our capabilities and drive improvement for Amazon.

Check out our open roles.

Come build the future of technology with us.
