

Message

From: Francis Hand [FHand@carellabyrne.com]
Sent: 11/30/2016 5:25:22 PM
To: Jay Choi [jay.choi@uber.com]
CC: Emmett Murphy (emmett.murphy@gocarma.com) [emmett.murphy@gocarma.com]
Subject: RE: Letter re. Carma Technology

Dear Jay

Thank you for your prompt response.

As requested in my letter of August 30, 2016, I would appreciate receiving an explanation of your reasons to support your belief that Uber does not infringe US Patent 7,840,427.

Thanks

Frank

From: Jay Choi [mailto:jay.choi@uber.com]
Sent: Wednesday, November 30, 2016 12:18 PM
To: Francis Hand
Subject: Re: Letter re. Carma Technology

Dear Mr. Hand,

First of all, thank you for your patience. As we previously mentioned, Uber takes allegations of patent infringement very seriously. That said, we have reviewed your letter dated October 31, 2016 and the patent in detail, and we believe that Uber does not infringe the patent. As such, we consider this matter closed.

Regards,
Jay

On Mon, Nov 14, 2016 at 1:30 PM, Francis Hand <FHand@carellabyrne.com> wrote:

Dear Mr. Choi

Thank you for acknowledging my letter of October 31, 2016.

Best regards

Frank

From: Jay Choi [mailto:jay.choi@uber.com]
Sent: Monday, November 14, 2016 1:30 PM
To: Francis Hand
Subject: Letter re. Carma Technology

Dear Mr. Hand,

My name is Jay Choi and I am a senior counsel on the IP team at Uber Technologies, Inc. I am writing to inform you that we just recently received your letter dated October 31, 2016 re. Carma Technology. I also note that we have been unaware of any other previous letter you may have sent.

Uber take allegations of infringement very seriously. We will get back to you after we've had a chance to assess the letter and the patent.

Regards,

--

Jay Choi

Uber Technologies, Inc. | Senior Counsel, IP

jay.choi@uber.com

--

Jay Choi

Uber Technologies, Inc. | Senior Counsel, IP

jay.choi@uber.com