Counsel,

Thorne agrees to the requested 21-day extension to serve responses and objections to Thorne's pending discovery requests, despite the short notice. We trust Defendants will hold their own responses to the same standard requested of Plaintiffs: the expectation is that the forthcoming responses will be substantive and will not contain inappropriate objections.

Best,
Tina

Counsel,

We request the courtesy of a 21-day extension, from October 5 to October 26, for Defendants to serve responses and objections to Thorne's pending discovery requests, with all objections preserved. We are in the process of reviewing the requests and coordinating with our clients to prepare Defendants' responses and document production. We previously granted Thorne a similar extension in response to its August 26 request and would appreciate the same professional courtesy.

Regards,
Nick
