GUNTERT & ZIMMERMAN CONST. DIV. INC.,
Patent Owner.

Case PGR2024-00026
Patent No. 11,772,723

PETITIONER'S MOTION TO SEAL

I. Introduction

Petitioner Godbersen-Smith Construction Company d/b/a GOMACO Corporation requests that its demonstratives in Exhibit 1209 be sealed under 37 C.F.R. § 42.55. There is good cause to seal this document because it contains information that Patent Owner contends is sensitive, non-public information that a business would not make public. Slides 58, 59, 68, and 70, contain information from Exhibits 2007, 2024, 2031, 2036, 1162, 1166–1170, and 1186, each of which is separately subject to a motion to seal by either Petitioner or Patent Owner in this proceeding. See Paper 20 (Patent Owner moving to seal Exhibits 2007, 2024, 2031, and 2036); Paper 25 (Petitioner moving to seal Exhibits 1162, 1166–1170, and 1186). In addition, the Board previously sealed underlying Exhibits 1162 and 1166–1170. Godbersen-Smith Const. Co. v. Guntert & Zimmerman Const. Div., Inc., IPR2020-01698, Paper 82 at 10 (Apr. 12, 2022) (“In summary, in IPR2020-01698, we seal . . . Exhibits 1162 . . . 1165–1175 . . .”). GOMACO has also filed a redacted public version of its demonstratives.

II. Governing Rules and PTAB Guidance

Under 35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(1), the default rule is that all papers filed in an inter partes review are open and available for access by the public, but a party may file a concurrent motion to seal and the information at issue is sealed pending the outcome of the motion.

In particular, 37 C.F.R. § 42.14 provides:

The record of a proceeding, including documents and things, shall be made available to the public, except as otherwise ordered. A party intending a document or thing to be sealed shall file a motion to seal concurrent with the filing of the document or thing to be sealed. The document or thing shall be provisionally sealed on receipt of the motion and remain so pending the outcome of the decision on the motion.

It is, however, only “confidential information” that is protected from disclosure. 35 U.S.C. § 316(a)(7) (“The Director shall prescribe regulations -- . . . providing for protective orders governing the exchange and submission of confidential information”). In that regard, the Office Trial Practice Guide, 77 Fed. Reg. 48756, 48760 (Aug. 14, 2012) provides:

The rules aim to strike a balance between the public’s interest in maintaining a complete and understandable file history and the parties’ interest in protecting truly sensitive information.

Confidential Information: The rules identify confidential information in a manner consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c)(1)(G), which provides for protective orders for trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.

§ 42.54.

III. Identification of Confidential Information

The confidential information includes sensitive, non-public information that a business would not make public. In particular, slides 58, 59, 68, and 70, contain information from Exhibits 2007, 2024, 2031, 2036, 1162, 1166–1170, and 1186, each of which is separately subject to a motion to seal by either Petitioner or Patent Owner in this proceeding. See Paper 20 (Patent Owner moving to seal Exhibits 2007, 2024, 2031, and 2036); Paper 25 (Petitioner moving to seal Exhibits 1162, 1166–1170, and 1186). In addition, the Board previously sealed underlying Exhibits 1162 and 1166–1170. Godbersen-Smith Const. Co. v. Guntert & Zimmerman Const. Div., Inc., IPR2020-01698, Paper 82 at 10 (Apr. 12, 2022).

Petitioner certifies that, to the best of Petitioner’s knowledge, no party has ever published or otherwise made this information public.

IV. Good Cause Exists for Sealing the Confidential Information

The Board routinely seals confidential sensitive internal business information. See, e.g., Associated British Foods, plc v. Cornell Resch. Found., Inc., IPR2019-00579, Paper 123 (PTAB Sept. 2, 2020); Intuitive Surgical, Inc. v. Ethicon LLC, IPR2019-00991, Paper 48 (PTAB Jan. 12, 2021). Here, Petitioner’s demonstratives contain information from exhibits that contain non-public details of G&Z’s business, including internal information on research and development, sales, marketing, and customer relations. Good cause exists to seal and keep this information confidential because it could impact G&Z's market position if made public. Accordingly, as in Associated British Foods and Intuitive Surgical, the Board should seal and keep this information confidential.

The Board previously found good cause to seal underlying Exhibits 1162 and 1166–1170. See Godbersen-Smith Const. Co. v. Guntert & Zimmerman Const. Div., Inc., IPR2020-01698, Paper 82 at 10 (Apr. 12, 2022).

V. Proposed Protective Order

Petitioner requests entry of the Default Protective Order, which Petitioner previously attached to an earlier motion to seal in this case (see Paper 3).

VI. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, Petitioner respectfully requests that the Board enter the Default Protective Order and grant this motion to seal.
