Dr. Falk Pharma GmbH v. Ellodi Pharmaceuticals, L.P.
IPR2025-00052/54/55/56 and PGR2025-00086

Dear Honorable Director,

This email is pursuant to Director Stewart's September 16, 2025 Memorandum and the Board's General Order in IPR2025-00052 (Paper 17), IPR2025-00054 (Paper 18), IPR2025-00055 (Paper 17), and IPR2025-00056 (Paper 18) directing the parties to jointly inform the PTAB of any developments regarding adjudication of patentability of substantially similar patent claims that may affect a decision in a related matter identified under 37 C.F.R. § 42.8(b)(2).

The parties jointly inform the PTAB that Adverse Judgment has been entered against Patent Owner in each of IPR2025-00052, IPR2025-00054, IPR2025-00055, and IPR2025-00056, which may affect a decision in the related matter of PGR2025-00086. If so directed, Petitioner can file the Adverse Judgments in the docket of PGR2025-00086.

Additionally, it is Patent Owner's position that it requested adverse judgment in IPR2025-00052, IPR2025-00054, IPR2025-00055, and IPR2025-00056 for resource purposes, and there has been no adjudication on the merits of the patentability of the claims in those proceedings. Further, to the extent Petitioner asserts that the challenged claims in PGR2025-00086 are "substantially similar patent claims" to those that have been disclaimed, Patent Owner disputes this characterization and maintains that the claims are patentably distinct.

Respectfully submitted,
Nathanael Luman
Counsel for Petitioner
