Re: Whirlpool Corp. v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., No. 2:25-cv-01042 (E.D. Tex.)

Dear Michael:

We write regarding PGR2026-00043, in which petitioners Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. and Samsung Electronics America, Inc. (collectively "Samsung") challenges the patentability of claims 1–4 and 7–26 of U.S. Patent No. 12,543,922. Samsung hereby stipulates that if the Patent Trial and Appeal Board ("PTAB") institutes PGR2026-00043, then Samsung will not pursue in the related district court case, styled Whirlpool Corp. v. Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., No. 2:25-cv-01042 (E.D. Tex.), any invalidity ground that reasonably could have been raised in an post grant review ("PGR") and any other ground based on a combination of system art with any prior art reference asserted as the basis of a ground in each PGR. See Tesla, Inc. v. Bulletproof Property Management, LLC., IPR2026-00204, Paper 14 at 2 (PTAB June 15, 2026) (informative).

To be clear, during the pendency of any instituted IPR, Samsung may continue to assert that that no injunction of any sort should issue in the related district court case because the existence of the ongoing IPR "raises a substantial question concerning either infringement or validity" of the asserted patent. LifeScan Scotland, Ltd. v. Shasta Techs., LLC, 734 F.3d 1361, 1366 (Fed. Cir. 2013).

Samsung will additionally seek to file this stipulation as an exhibit in the PGR proceeding.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ben Haber
